Mayer Frank Douglas has called a public meeting to be held at the City Hall auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, October 8th, for a discussion of the proposed street and drainage program.

The area slated for improvement under this proposed program is the southeast section of the city, covering all the area in the city limits south of the Missouri-Pacific Railroad and east of Main Street. The Mayor urges everyone residing or owning property in this area to attend this meeting, saying that this is one of the most important decisions this community has been called upon to make in many years. He said that the plan has been developed as far as the Board of City Directors can carry it and that it is now up to the public to either accept or reject it.

The street and drainage plan was worked out by the City Directors with much help from the City Planning Commission. Federal money was obtained to provide the engineering, and the City secured a federal grant of $250,000 toward completing the work and are able to provide 20% of the total construction costs from surplus utility funds. This will leave the property owners to pay approximately 40% of the total cost. The Mayor said that it is urgent to complete the plan because the City is running against a deadline for either accepting or rejecting the federal money, and acceptance will require the approval of two-thirds of all the property involved in the area. Several interested people are circulating petitions, but many more are needed to complete a canvas of the area, and Mayor Douglas says anyone interested in assisting in the canvas may call him for information.

Presbyterian Study Series Is Planned Here

Wednesday night the First Presbyterian Church will begin a study on the Letters of John. The study book is entitled "This We Know" by Suzanne de Dietrich. Dr. L. T. Lawrence will present the introduction to the study.

A pot luck supper is planned for the congregation to begin at 6:30 p.m. Everyone is urged to attend these studies beginning on Oct. 9th and on successive Wednesday evenings through November 13th. Following the opening study by Dr. L. T. Lawrence these people will present the studies:

Miss Kay Leimbacher on Oct. 16th; Mrs. Thomas Tays, Jr., on Oct. 23; Mr. Mac McLarty on Oct. 30th; Mrs. Joe Keesey on Nov. 6th and Mr. Gordon Bayless on Nov. 13th.

Cotton May Lose Further in Market

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today cotton appears likely to lose further ground during the current marketing year in its battle against surpluses despite a nine per cent cutback in farm plantings.

A survey of domestic and foreign sales prospects indicated, a cotton situation report said, that the 1963 crop will be at least 700,000 bales larger than needed. This extra cotton would be added to a reserve and surplus supply estimated at 11.2 million bales on Aug. 1 this year. The supply next Aug. 1 would then be the largest since the record high carryover of 14.5 million bales in 1956.

This year's production has been indicated at 14.3 million bales compared to 14.8 million last year. The report forecast domestic needs during the 1963 crop year ending next Aug. 1 at 8.8 million bales, up 200,000 from the past year, and exports at 5 million bales compared with last year's low level of 3.4 million.

3,500 on Hand to Greet JFK

By LEN TALIAFERRO
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—President John F. Kennedy was welcomed at Little Rock Air Force Base today by a crowd estimated at 3,500 persons.

Lt. Ken Greenberg, a base information officer, estimated the crowd which was strung out along the runway on which the presidential plane landed.

The crowd consisted of base personnel, their families and a multitude of school children.

Kennedy left the plane first. He was followed by the entire Arkansas congressional delegation.

The President was met by a military honor guard consisting of a band, a color guard and four squadrons of airmen in full dress. The band struck up "Hail to the Chief" and "Ruffles and Flourishes", followed by the National Anthem.

Kennedy was greeted at the foot of the ramp by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

After inspecting the honor guard, Kennedy was introduced to state dignitaries by Faubus. They included state officials and legislators.

Then the President walked to the crowd and shook hands with many of the onlookers. He was cheered. Twice he started away, then returned to shake more hands.

After visiting with the crowd for 10 minutes, the President walked briskly to a helicopter, boarded and waved as the craft took off for Heber Springs.

Four other helicopters carried dignitaries and newsmen followed.

Arkansas Gets Another Warm Clear Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Ditto was the weather word today in Arkansas.

A high pressure front moving gradually through the Mid-South brought another day of excellent weather with clear skies.

Indications were that a repeat performance — with warm days and cool nights — is in store through the weekend.

The forecast calls for clear to partly cloudy and warm through Friday with highs today from 84 to 92 and lows tonight mostly in the 50s.

The hovering front brought excellent weather for President Kennedy's visit. Harvest conditions remained ideal. Rainfall in the state this year to date is 16.57 inches below normal.

But the lack of rain again left the state forests in critical danger of fire.

Low temperatures this morning were generally in the 50s, however Harrison had a warm 66 and Fayetteville dipped to 47.

Highs Wednesday were mostly in the 80s.

Negro Youth Is Charged in Store Bombing

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—A young Negro was charged with arson today in the investigation of a gas explosion which destroyed a meat market in a Negro residential area of bomb-jittery Birmingham.

Police Capt. J.W. Garrison said two detectives are investigating the possibility of racial undertones in Wednesday night's explosion.

The Negro, Johnny Lewis Ruffin, 20, was placed under police custody less than two hours after an internal explosion rocked the single story brick store, operated by white owners.

Garrison said Ruffin was questioned at University Hospital, where he came for treatment of burns of the left arm, side and thigh. Ruffin said he received the burns from a gasoline stove where he worked.

The store, a shambles after the internal explosion set off a scorching fire, is ringed by Negro low-income homes in northwest Birmingham.

Kennedy Links Dam Dedication to New Symbol in the South

President Told Viet Nam War Is Going Well

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's military advisers have told him the anti-Communist war in South Viet Nam is going well enough that it may be possible to withdraw most of the American forces there in two years, the White House reports.

In a statement issued only hours after the return from Viet Nam of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, there was no indication of any dramatic change of American policy toward the South Viet Nam government.

The two officials said the political situation in South Viet Nam remains "deeply serious."

But they predicted that by the end of this year the U.S. training program for Vietnamese would have reached the point where 1,000 military personnel assigned to South Viet Nam can be withdrawn.

The White House said Wednesday night's declaration was approved by Kennedy on the basis of recommendations of McNamara and Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

It said that South Viet Nam's security remains "a major interest of the United States as of

Says Lover Vowed to See Him in Jail

By HAL R. COOPER

LONDON (AP)—A Negro lover of Christine Keeler declared today she became pregnant by him last spring and underwent an abortion to avoid having the baby.

Aloysius "Lucky" Gordon, 32, a Jamaican, made this statement at a hearing of charges that Christine and three others committed perjury and conspired to subvert justice in order to put him in prison.

Gordon said Christine's pregnancy was the reason he engaged in a scuffle with her in an apartment building last April 17. He swore, however, that he did not inflict on her the injuries—including a cut eye—which led to his conviction on an assault charge which she lodged against him.

"She was pregnant and Dr. Hughes got rid of the kid," Gordon shouted from the witness stand in the Marylebone Magistrate's Court. "That is what I went there to prevent."

Gordon said Christine, the girl in the John Profumo case, was living with him when she found out she was going to have a baby.

"She had cleared out and taken everything with her," he said.

Gordon was the star witness at the second day of the hearing. Purpose of the court session is to determine whether Christine and her three co-defendants must face a jury trial on charges of taking the assault case against him.

Christine and three other persons are charged with perjury and conspiracy to subvert justice at the trial of the Negro jazz singer, who was convicted June 7 of attacking her. Gordon, a Jamaican, was sentenced to three years in prison but an appeals court released him last July.

At the opening of the preliminary hearing Wednesday, Prosecutor John Buzzard accused the 21-year-old call girl of paying a co-defendant $700 to back up her story that Gordon, 32, beat her up. Her roommate's brother, John Hamilton-Marshall, 27, then testified he beat up Christine during an argument before Gordon arrived at the apartment last April 17.

Gordon testified he had a scuffle with Christine in the flat where she was staying with a friend, Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23, a co-defendant.

The singer said he aimed a blow at Christine but she turned to run, fell down and he missed.

"I rushed to Christine and I said I was sorry," he related. "But she said she was going to let me in jail this time."

Phone Hearing Is Postponed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The State Public Service Commission has postponed a hearing on complaints of residents in the Hazen and Des Arc areas that Southwestern States Telephone Co. gave poor service.

The firm advised the PSC it is starting a $41,298 expansion program in the area. The commission told the firm to report weekly its progress on the construction.

Hurricane Aims Fury at Haiti

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Flora, potentially the most deadly storm to roar out of the tropical Atlantic in two years, aimed her 140-mile-an-hour fury today at the Negro nation of Haiti.

A heavy loss of life and great property destruction was likely in Haiti, the weather bureau said, because there are few places where her people can hide from the storm.

Beyond Haiti, in the path of the hurricane, lay Cuba's Oriente Province and the big United States Navy base at Guantanamo Base. The Cuban radio broadcast a warning to residents of Oriente, mountainous birthplace of Fidel Castro's revolution, to prepare for the storm.

Around Flora's eye raged the most vicious winds any hurricane has generated since Carla slammed Texas and Louisiana Sept. 14, 1961.

Carla killed 43 persons in four states and launched one of this country's greatest migrations, the flight of 400,000 persons from the lowlands of the Gulf Coast.

In a morning report, the weather bureau at San Juan said Flora was centered near latitude 16.5 north, longitude 72.0 west, or about 140 miles south-southeast of Port Au Prince, the capital of Haiti.

Barring a shift in direction, forecasters said, the hurricane will strike Haiti this evening with destructive winds, storm tides eight to 10 feet above normal, and torrential rains.

Residents of low-lying coastal areas of southern Haiti and the Dominican Republic, the two nations which share the tropical island of Hispaniola, were warned to evacuate immediately.

Then Kennedy flew on to the north and east to dedicate the Greys Ferry Dam near Heber Springs.

Several thousand people turned out there, too, to hear him speak from a platform overlooking the $46.7 million concrete structure stretching 1,700 feet to the west across the Little Red River.

It was a bright, warm day. Sailboats skimmed the reservoir behind the dam, Autumn had already brushed the wooded Ozark foothills with splashes of crimson and yellow.

Kennedy's helicopter stood by to take him from the dam to the fairgrounds and his second speech of the day.

Faubus, who has shown no unbounded enthusiasm for a second term for Kennedy, greeted the chief executive with southern hospitality and was with him all the way during his flitting through the central area of the state.

Arkansas was one of the southern states that went to Kennedy in 1960.

And if today's visit should help produce a harvest of Kennedy votes again next year, certainly the White House will be happy about it.

For today there seemed to be no full scale politicking on tap, in a state where there will be no senatorial election next year.

All four Arkansas House members, of course, will be up for reelection next year, however.

And for the entire delegation, Kennedy had a friendly salute.

"These are forward-looking men," Kennedy said.

Change Means More Equality, President Says

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—President Kennedy winged into the Southland today and dedicated a new dam as a symbol of the rising of a new South through changes he said "can mean great equality of opportunity for all our citizens."

In a state where a 1957 row over school integration first set off a clash of federal-state power on this issue, Kennedy said that this greater equality of opportunity for all "is the grand objective of all our programs and policies."

"And that," the President said in an address prepared for delivery at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition grounds in Little Rock, "is why I believe the other story of the South deserves to be told—a story of hope and progress—a story of federal-state cooperation, not animosity and isolation—a story of Southern growth in education and industry so rapid as to bring this region more nearly on a par with the rest of the nation."

"For that is the ultimate day toward which we look—the day when we shall recognize no South, no North, no East, no West—but one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all," the President said.

But in his words of welcome at the dam dedication, Faubus took a backhanded slap at Kennedy's civil rights program. The Arkansas governor, who closed Little Rock schools against integration in 1957, said the right of the individual to run his own business should be protected even in the "effort to abridge or destroy this right may masquerade as civil rights."

The chief executive stowed the entire six-man Arkansas congressional delegation and a couple of other congressmen aboard his jet airliner and flew to the Little Rock Air Force Base from Washington. He got a formal military welcome and a warm, informal one from the hundreds of people from the base assembled at the landing strip.

Then Kennedy flew on to the north and east to dedicate the Greys Ferry Dam near Heber Springs.

Several thousand people turned out there, too, to hear him speak from a platform overlooking the $46.7 million concrete structure stretching 1,700 feet to the west across the Little Red River.

Buick Special Is Bigger In 1964

Three inches have been added to the wheelbase and almost a foot to the length of the all-new Buick Special for 1964, which for the first time is built on a solid-steel frame. The Special is not only longer, but is also wider, roomier and has more door space for easier entrance and exit. An improved new V-6 engine with displacement increased to 225 cubic inches is standard equipment. Options include the new Super Turbine 300 torque converter transmission; the four-speed synchromesh transmission, and also the new 300 cubic inch displacement aluminum V-8 engine. Styling highlights include curved glass in side and rear windows.

Buick Wildcat For 1964

Buick's Wildcat for 1964 takes on a new appearance with complete restyling of the front, sides and rear. The new grille — outlined by a stout chrome frame — features a floating center bar which carries the Tri-Shield emblem. The side view is dominated by new moulding extending from the front wheels to the rear bumper. Ventiports have been redesigned and placed one above the other. The exclusive Wildcat chrome plated spoke wheels shown here are optional. In addition to the two-door hardtop, the Wildcat comes in a new four-door sedan, four-door hardtop and convertible. Buick's new Super Turbine 400 torque converter transmission, or a four-speed manual transmission are optional on the Wildcat, along with a 425 cubic inch engine equipped with two four-barrel carburetors.

TEACHERS' STRIKE IN 1962: One effect of teachers on picket lines is that their signs tend to be literate and original. One proclaims: "The Wages of Teachers Are a Sin." Another, "An Apple for Teacher Isn't Enough."

Middle ground between sweaters and sport coats is held by these popular models. Brushed wool and mohair cardigan (left) features jacket-type suede-patched elbows, while American wool blazer-type sweaters (right) are available either in solid colors or with contrasting piping.

Witnesses Plan Circuit Meet

Jehovah's witnesses from Hope and neighboring cities will meet in Texarkana, Arkansas for their semi-annual circuit assembly October 4-6, so stated Clifford Cook, presiding minister for the local group.

Mr. Cook, in discussing this announcement to the congregation, pointed to the challenge to Christian thinking and Christian works in the rising tide of materialism.

Regular meetings at the local Kingdom Hall will be suspended during the assembly.

2 Are Indicted on Strength of Testimony

RIVERHEAD, N.Y. (AP) — A Suffolk County grand jury Wednesday night indicted two men, charging them with the Cosa Nostra murder of a Brooklyn hoodlum.

Anthony (Fat Tony) Regina, 29, of Commack, N.Y., and John J. (Moose) Battista, 47, of Brooklyn, were charged with first degree murder in the Aug. 9 slaying of Louis Mariani, 26.

Battista and Regina are described by authorities as members of a Brooklyn gang formerly headed by the late Joseph Profaci and now led by his brother-in-law, Joseph Magliocco.

Joseph Valachi, testifying at a Senate hearing in Washington, has named Magliocco as one of five top leaders in New York of Cosa Nostra, a nationwide crime society.

In the five-point policy statement, the White House said that while the Diem government's repressive actions against Buddhists "have not yet significantly affected the military effort they could do so in the future."

The United States has poured millions of dollars and thousands of men into South Viet Nam to keep the Southeast Asia country from falling into Communist hands.

But U.S. officials, including Kennedy, expressed fear after the Buddhists' anti-government demonstrations that the war there could be lost if there were not reforms in the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem, a Roman Catholic.

One of the chief reasons for the McNamara-Taylor mission was to learn if the clampdown on Buddhists was hindering the anti-guerrilla effort.

The grand jury also indicted Battista and Regina on a charge of assault for the wounding of Francis Getch, who was in a car with Mariani.

The slaying of Mariani may have been a mistake, police said. The intended victim, they said, may have been Salvatore Mangiameli, a Gallo lieutenant, whose wife was in the car with Mariani, her brother-in-law. She escaped injury.

Woman Shot to Death at Spa

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Ruth Archer, second victim of a shooting at a Hot Springs resident Wednesday, died early today in a Hot Springs hospital.

Mrs. Letta Beninato was killed instantly in the shooting. Both women were shot with a .22 caliber pistol.

Detective Jack Harvey said no arrests have been made in the deaths since Mrs. Archer could not be questioned.

Two men were being questioned in connection with the shooting Wednesday night, Harvey said.

He said no trace of the pistol had been found and that police were unable to learn details because they could not question Mrs. Archer.

Everybody out of the rut ...the '64 Buicks are here!

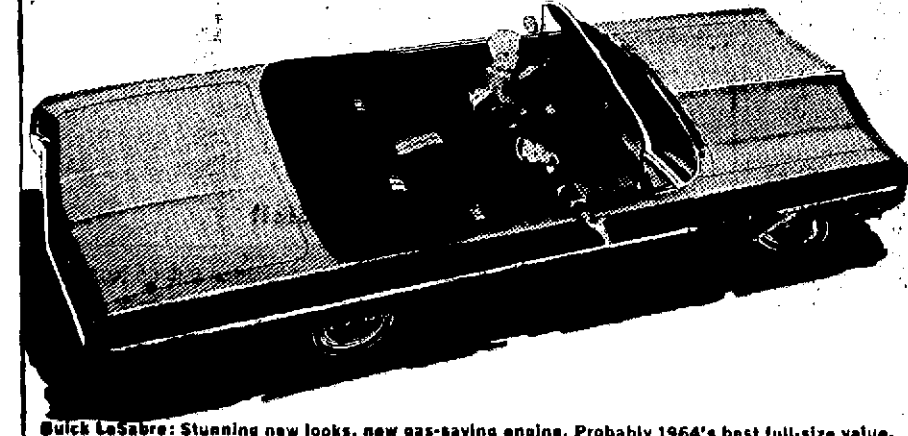

New Wildcat: Wildest, sportiest yet. Three hefty engine choices (up to 160 hp). Hot new Formula V wheels (optional at extra cost).

Buick Special: New longer wheel base, safety bar frame, comfort body, trim and price.

Buick Skylark: A very personal car with a flair for action. Now in 3 models.

Buick LeSabre: Stunning new looks, new gas-saving engine. Probably 1964's best full-size value.

Our happiest problem for '64 was: how to beat a winner? According to thousands of owners, the 1963 models just about had it made in all departments. But—when your name is Buick—you just don't rest on your laurels. You keep pushing to make a great car greater.

So . . . the '64 Buicks are new—but new. New engines, V-6 or V-8 (you'll like their new gas economy), new, smoother, extra-cost option, Super Turbine Transmissions (and who, but Buick, would build in an altitude compensator?). Youngest looking Fisher Bodies in town! Visit a showroom, sit in any one of the new Buicks, and practice this short easy line: "My Buick." Sounds good, doesn't it?

The meeting was adjourned to meet in the cottage on October 15.

Dinner Pottery Country Club Golf Tourney

Following the golf tournament Wednesday, October 2 at the Hope Country Club, dinner was served at the clubhouse to about 30. Pretty zinnias made colorful decoration.

Later in the evening a golfing film entitled "1963 Masters Tournament" was shown by Mitch LaGrone. Host couples were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Beyerley.

Earlier, 22 participated in a couples' golf tournament. Mr. and Mrs. Mitch LaGrone were the winners, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fenwick was second. Each received a trophy at the conclusion of play.

Delta Kappa Gamma Meets at School

The Alpha Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met in the Home Economics Cottage at Hope High School on Tuesday, October 1 for its initial meeting of the year.

Mrs. Marie Holt, president, called the meeting to order, and Mrs. Helen Hays led the group in repeating the club collect in unison. All joined in singing the Delta Kappa Gamma song, under the direction of Mrs. Muriel McLarty.

A welcome was extended to a former member, Miss Mary Roy Moses, who returned her membership from a chapter in Natchez, Miss., where she belonged several years. Since this was primarily a business meeting, reports were heard from various committee chairmen.

The hostesses, Mrs. Ruth Haneagan, Mrs. Charlene Elter, and Miss Mary Margaret Haynes, served a dessert and coffee to 17.

Coming and Going

The Rev. and Mrs. William P. Hardegree and Mrs. Nettie Dinkins visited Mrs. Ruth Rettig last Friday en route to their new home in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Shields, Jr., Mark and Sandra attended the Rhodes family reunion in Prescott Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Rettig spent the weekend with her brother, Leonard Coffey, and Mrs. Coffey near Longview, Tex.

Bungling Costly
to the U. S.
Taxpayers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The General Accounting Office says bungled management in the nation's space agency and in private industry has cost the taxpayers more than $100 million.

The hitherto secret report to Congress, dated March 29, but only made public today says that as a result the Lunar exploration program has been delayed two years and one whole project involving a communications satellite had to be redirected at a loss of $76 million.

The GAO investigation was undertaken as a direct result of findings by the House Committee on Science and Astronautics, headed by Rep. George P. Miller, D-Calif., in June 1962.

In a report to Miller, Comptroller General Joseph Campbell wrote:

"The findings are consistent with the conclusion reached by your subcommittee on space sciences ... That government and contractor management of the Centaur program was less than adequate."

On May 8, 1962, the first flight test of the Atlas missile, using the hydrogen-oxygen fueled Centaur as a second stage, blew up 54 seconds after launch.

The failure was directly attributable to technical faults in the Centaur, the GAO said, which should have been known to the contractor, the Astronautics Division of General Dynamics Corp., as early as 1960.

The Centaur was to be used as an upper stage in the lunar exploration program, in placing of the advent communications satellite in a fixed position orbit, in exploration of the space between Venus and Mars and in other space exploration missions.

You can stretch a tossed green salad, and make it especially interesting to men, by adding whole-kernel corn. Cut the kernels from leftover cooked corn on the cob, or use canned corn; in the latter case, drain it thoroughly.

TOP—The Oldsmobile F-85 for 1964 is designed for maximum utility with more legroom, headroom and entrance room. The styling of the new F-85 presents a clean, sharp image. The 4-Dr Sedan, shown above, is one of nine F-85 models offered this year. The F-85 has its own version of Oldsmobile's new Jetfire Rocket engine. A lightweight, cast-iron V-8 design, it combines exceptional quietness and smoothness with ruggedness and durability. For those buyers who are primarily interested in fuel economy and low price, Oldsmobile is also offering a new V-6 engine.

BOTTOM—Oldsmobile's 1964 F-85 Cutlass models are totally new automobiles—in styling, in engineering and in performance. The Cutlass Holiday coupe, shown above, as well as the Cutlass Sports coupe and Cutlass convertible, are equipped with bucket seats and are powered by an ultra-high compression version of the new Jetfire Rocket engine which delivers 290 horsepower. Available on Cutlass models and on all 1964 F-85's is an entirely new transmission, Jetaway, which provides smooth and efficient transmission of power.

HER HEAVEN TURNED INTO HELL

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: My husband had really been living it up till he met me six years ago. I was 16, he 23 when we married. Our daughter came first, then the little son. I am expecting another baby next Christmas perhaps by a man not my husband. The whole sordid, tragic experience has been a nightmare even though my husband forgave me and I love him more than ever. I would place the baby for adoption but there is a chance that it could be my husband's. He says to wait and see whom the child resembles. To give it for adoption will be hard, exhibiting my baby as it were, like a piece of merchandise. But I don't want to ruin four lives. My husband and I both read your column. Your advice will help us. My heaven has turned into hell.

Dear Torn: The most important person to be considered in your tragic and sordid situation is not your husband, or you, but your unborn child. Your primary concern now must be the future of your family as a whole and this includes the new baby which may or may not belong to your husband.

Having confessed your doubt on this score to him, you should gratefully accept his forgiveness and henceforth firmly resolve to deserve it in every possible way. If you truly love him "more than ever," try to regain his confidence and respect as well as your own, by convincing him that never again will you be guilty of infidelity.

The fact that he "had really been living it up" before you were married has absolutely no bearing on your behavior as a wife and mother. Don't grasp at that irrelevant straw to try to exonerate your conduct. Just be very thankful that you're married to a man who can find it in his heart to understand and forgive you. Few women are that lucky. From now on try to avoid further discussion about the paternity of this child. Both you and your husband should assume that it is his and it should be welcomed into the family as a full-fledged member on equal standing with your other children. Innumerable children bear no resemblance to either of their parents. To base your decision to place the baby for adoption on such a consideration would be cruel and unjust.

There are other strong reasons against the adoption. What would the effect be on your son and daughter, not to mention your friends and relatives? How could you ever explain such an action? Also, the supply currently exceeds the demand in the baby adoption field. But the real reason against adoption in your case is that only by providing the baby with the love, devotion and security it deserves can you hope to atone for your own wrong.

Dear Helen: I am interested in being a stewardess. However, I don't know where to get my training. Could you give me names of schools to which I might write for literature concerning this profession? I am to graduate in another year. —Ambitious

Dear Ambitious: Talk first to the guidance counselor in your high school. Then write directly to some of the major airline companies, such as Pan American Airways, United Airlines, TWA, etc. Having recently discussed this very subject with one of the top pilots of American Airlines, I do know that this company requires a minimum of two years of college plus two more years of office work with the line. My leaflet "Travel and Work" may be of help. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for it.

Dear Helen: A girl who signed herself "E" wrote you of her constant fears and the fact that she had even considered suicide. It seems to me that beside the good advice you gave her she should see her family physician or a psychiatrist. What do you think? —Nurse

Dear Nurse: I agree. Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help

Best Values
at Markets
on Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Meat fans will find mouth-watering variety at economical prices at the nation's supermarkets this weekend.

Prices are lower for many cuts of beef and pork. Chicken and turkey specials are widespread. And some areas are also featuring lamb and veal.

Heavy marketings of cattle and hogs, with cattle volume hitting record levels at times, have brought many prices down.

One national chain is featuring ribs of beef at 59 cents a pound in its New York outlets. It offers boneless, top and bottom round roasts at 85 cents.

On the West Coast, wholesale prices on beef loins are down as much as 5 cents a pound.

Slow beef and rump roasts are particularly attractive in the Midwest.

Veal shoulder roasts are another Midwest feature.

Lamb roasts are tagged 69 cents a pound at one Eastern chain and some other areas also have lamb features.

Turkey prices are attractive as the pre-holiday marketing push begins. Broiler-fryers and stewing hens also are widely featured. Vegetable offerings this weekend continue broad. Tail-end supplies of tender vegetables are flowing into market ahead of frost in many areas, offering good buys for shoppers who know how to pick carefully. Fall harvest volume is strong.

General features include beets, cabbage, cauliflower, celery, corn, cucumbers, greens, onions, peppers, radishes and squash. Tomatoes and potatoes are especially abundant.

In the News Today From Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington: HELP FOR CHILDREN: Without debate, the Senate had approved President Kennedy's multimillion-dollar program to prevent mental retardation in children.

The legislation now returns to the House, which already approved it, for expected acceptance of a minor technical amendment written by the Senate. The bill, which the Senate passed Wednesday by a voice vote, would authorize:

—A $5-million annual increase in the current $25 million in federal grants for material and child health services until the grants reach $30 million in 1970. States of third communities now share this for under a matching formula.

—A new program of projects also designed to prevent mental retardation in children which would begin in 1964, increase to $5 million in 1965 and to $15 million in 1966 and to $20 million in 1967 and to $25 million in 1968 and to $30 million in 1969 and to $35 million in 1970.

—A research program on maternal and child health services and crippled children's services through grants which would begin at $2 million a year and build up to $7 million in five years.

—A $2.2 million grant to help states in planning mental retardation programs.

STILL PAYS: Believing that honesty should pay, the Senate has voted to reward two Massachusetts brothers for turning in bonds and $1,200 in cash found in an old paint can.

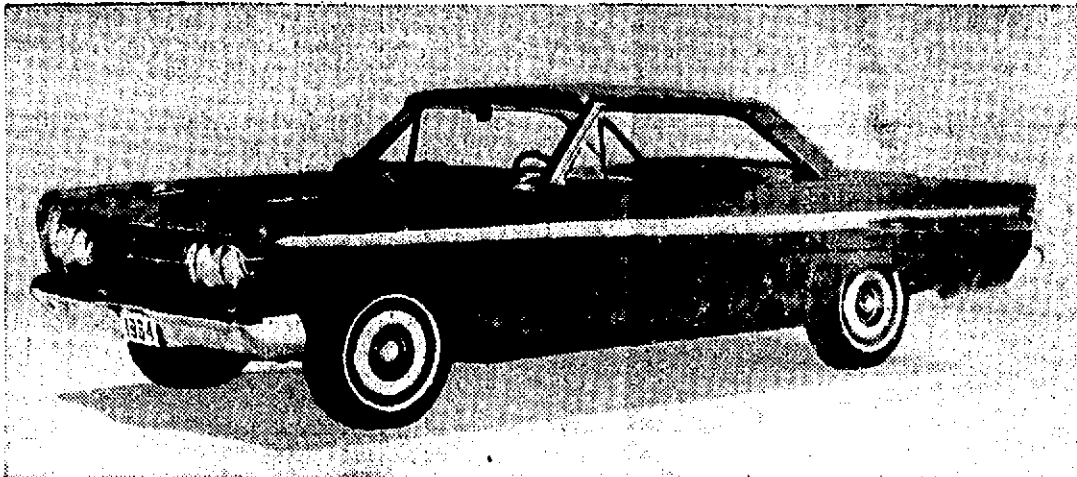

The brothers, Edwin Bennett, 16 and Bruce, 11, of Sunderland, spotted the cache in September 1959 in a barn on property their father, Warren D. Bennett, had just purchased.

The original owner was Teodor Outincewicz, a refugee who died in 1950 after winning the bonds and $1,200 in cash.

After the litigation, the government received $1,200 as a result of the boys' discovery. The boys got nothing.

Wednesday the Senate sent a bill to the White House that would reward each with $50 for "honesty and integrity."

EQUAL TIME: The Senate has passed legislation that would clear the way for radio and television debates next year by the Democratic and Republican presiden-

The 1964 Comet, pioneer of the luxury compacts, undergoes its first complete change since 1960. This Caliente hardtop is one of three models in a plush new top-of-the-line series. The completely redesigned Comet has all new sheet metal, improved ride and handling characteristics, and greater passenger room. New standards of performance are attained with a new three-speed automatic transmission and a broad range of four engines, including a new 289 cubic-inch V-8 and a new 200 cubic-inch six. The 1964 Comet offers ten models in three new series designations—Comet 202, Comet 404, and Comet Caliente.

Wanted to Avoid Any Terrorism

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Ex-President Juan Bosch says any failure by his administration to act more forcefully against Communists in the Dominican Republic stemmed from fear of triggering Batista-type terrorism.

Bosch, deposed in a bloodless coup last week by military officers, was referring to the strong-hand tactics employed by former dictator Fulgencio Batista of Cuba. The military leaders said they ousted Bosch because he was leading his country into the arms of the Communists.

Refuge Abandoned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Grant-Saline County Game Refuge will be abandoned by the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission and opened to hunting Nov. 11, the first day deer can legally be killed with guns in Arkansas. The Commission said leases on the land expire this year and will not be renewed.

tial candidates.

The measure would suspend for 60 days preceding the Nov. 3 election the Federal Communication Commission requirement that radio and television stations provide equal time for all candidates for public office if time is provided for any of them.

The bill was passed Wednesday by a voice vote.

The measure now goes back to the House which has passed it but had included a 75-day suspension of the equal-time provision, instead of the Senate's 60 days.

DRY RUN—The sports racing car is expected to compete in anything short of a hurricane, but that's no reason the driver has to get wet before the start. Ralph Durbin hides under an umbrella as he waits for the flag in his Lotus formula junior at aptly named Waterford Hills, Mich. Ken Woodward, in No. 73, just sat there and got wet.

Indiana Gets First Sales Tax

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The State Supreme Court gave Indiana its first sales tax with a unanimous 5-0 decision that the 2 percent levy passed by the 1963 General Assembly is constitutional. Unless a rehearing is asked, collection of the tax can start on Oct. 22.

Vertical Takeoff Plane Crashes

collection of the tax can start on Oct. 22.

Pair Held in Texas for Vicious State Slaying

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Billy Frank Gross, 26, and Harmon Benjamin Wingard, 32, were arrested by FBI agents at Lubbock, Tex. Wednesday in connection with the slaying Sunday of an elderly Conway County man.

Conway County Prosecutor Jeff Mobley charged both men Monday with first degree murder and issued warrants for their arrest in connection with the brutal beating death of Frank A. Birch, 60, of near Hattiesville.

They were arrested at a residence just south of Lubbock. Officers said they offered no resistance. Both were held on $50,000 bond.

They were traced to Lubbock through a 1960 car with Texas license plates which officers said they had been driving in Arkansas. The car was found in front of the residence.

A woman arrested with the two was released after questioning.

Birch's body was found Sunday by officers in his shack near Hattiesville, 11 miles northwest of Morrilton. He had been beaten with pieces of stove wood and his throat had been cut with a hacksaw and knife.

Ordered Out of State Pavilion

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Ozark Society was ordered out of the "This Is Arkansas" pavilion at the Arkansas Livestock Exposition Wednesday for trying to "sell" its side of the Buffalo River controversy.

Opponents complained to Exposition Manager Clyde E. Byrd, who ordered the society out of a free booth in the pavilion. The society moved to the Merchants' Tent, rented a $100 booth, and was back in business.

The society displayed signs urging retention of a free-flowing Buffalo, preferably as a "national river," and had petitions addressed to Rep. James Trimble and other Arkansas Congressmen urging that the Buffalo be made a national river.

Opponents favor damming the river.

The first sawmill was erected near Helena more than 120 years ago.

Dimes Leaders Hold Conference

The March of Dimes now provides the largest single national source of private support for scientific research and patient care in both arthritis and birth defects, according to Mrs. Lura Mae Impson.

Mrs. Impson, center in the picture, Hempstead County Chapter Chairman, made the statement on her return from Dallas where she and Mrs. Dorothy Camp (right), attended a meeting of volunteer leaders planning for the January, 1964 March of Dimes Campaign. More than 400 delegates from New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas attended the two day session at the Baker Hotel.

March of Dimes leadership in the fight against crippling birth defects and arthritis has been achieved in less than six years after the organization first turned its attention to them, Mrs. Impson said.

Mrs. Impson emphasized that the March of Dimes is also providing the highest level of support for outstanding scientists in the leading laboratories of the United States and other nations. This year, for example, nearly $7,500,000 will be devoted to a research program seeking to eliminate birth defects which strike more than 250,000 babies each year; and arthritis, which numbers its victims in the millions.

One aspect of this research program of particular interest to March of Dimes contributors, said Mrs. Impson, is the Salk Institute for Biological Studies. There, Dr. Jonas Salk and a team of world renowned scientists will soon begin studies of the most basic biological questions. The March of Dimes is aiding in the construction and support of the Institute. "We urge everyone to support these new programs of the March of Dimes," concluded Mrs. Impson. "at the same time, we cannot forget the many thousands of disabled polio victims who still look to us for help. Your contributions will enable them to look to the future with hope."

Mud Creek Job Is Approved

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Agriculture Committee approved the use of $451,033 in federal funds on the Mud Creek Watershed. Project in Independence County, Ark. Wednesday.

Total cost of the 18,345 acre project is $720,040.

Similar action by the House Agriculture Committee would release the funds for flood prevention, drainage and water use.

School Official Helped Himself

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An audit of Springdale School District finances shows Supt. J. O. Kelly spent $1,015 in school funds for service to his car and in bonuses for school employees without school board authorization, the state Comptroller's Office said Wednesday.

Kelly resigned in August after a school board meeting at which he admitted using the funds to pay for service to his car. He complained that the board "had its spite out" for him and he was underpaid.

The audit, signed by Harvey L. McGuire and Neil Morton of the comptroller's office, said Kelly had offered to make restitution. Aside from the misspent funds, the audit said, the district's finances were in good shape.

The auditors said some of the money Kelly used also went for bonus payments to school bus drivers, teachers and other employees, extra help pay, 75 desks and a set of books for a family member.

Kelly had been superintendent of Springdale schools for 19 years. His resignation takes effect Dec. 31, but the board has given him emeritus status for 18 months more so he can draw Social Security.

Signature Better, Gets Welfare Job

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo. (AP)—Roe Saunders became chairman of the county welfare board because his signature plate was better than the one for Art Jens.

The plate with Jens' signature suddenly wouldn't work in the welfare office two weeks ago. So, nobody could get paid.

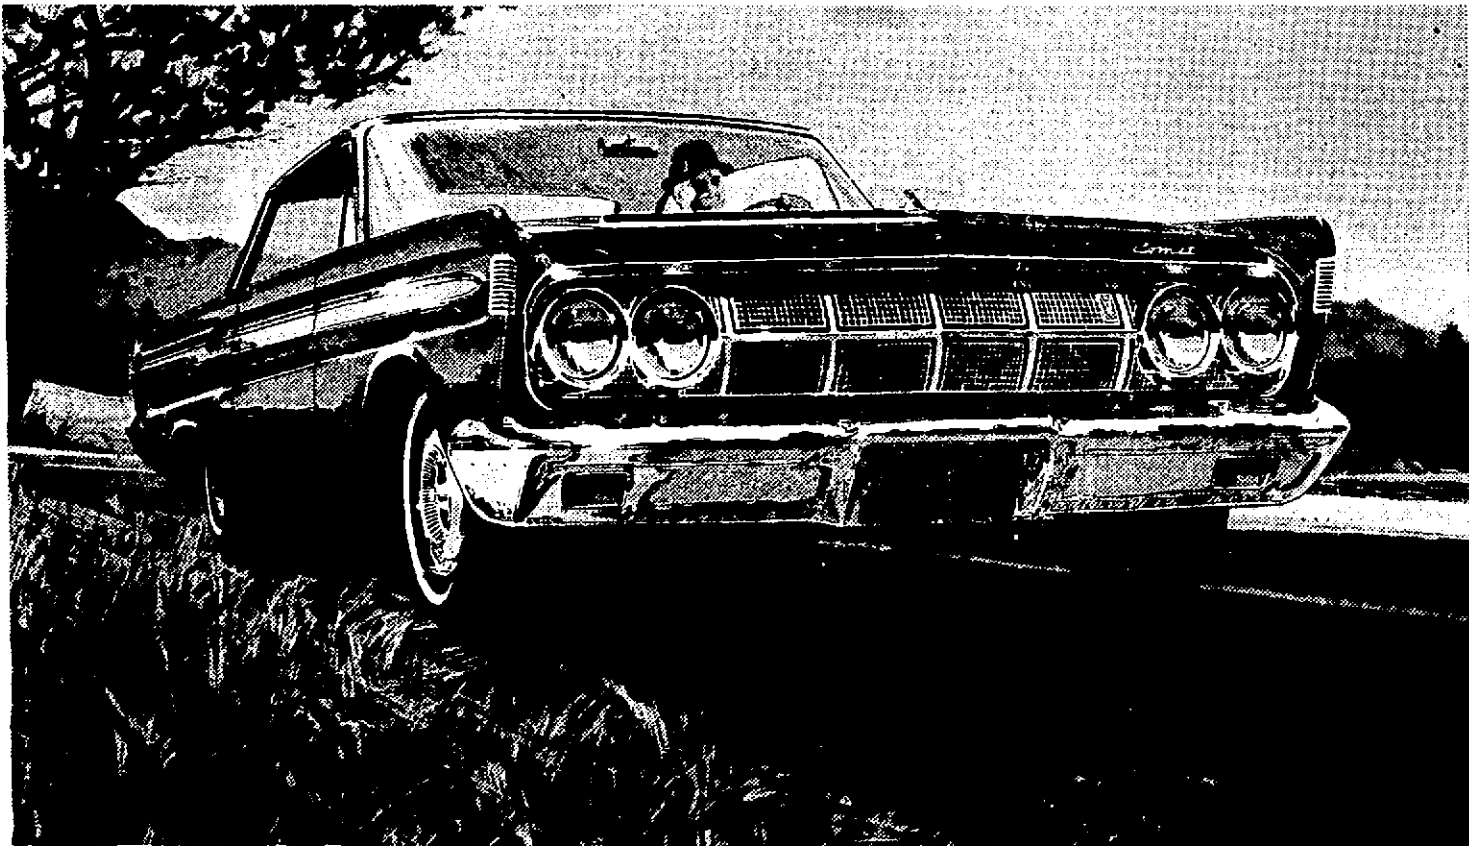

The plate bearing Saunders' signature was rushed into service, and he was made board chairman so the payment would be good.

Saunders, a county commissioner, gave up the emergency job after Jens' signature plate was fixed.

Pipeline Work

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. officials said Saturday that a 158-mile gas pipeline from Paris, Ark. to Centrahoma, Okla., passed the halfway point last week. The $15 million pipeline will be the first interstate transmission line into the Arkansas Basin of eastern Oklahoma and western Arkansas.

For 1964...Comet announces a car that's every bit as hot as it looks...

Comet Caliente

This is the beginning of a new kind of Comet. Hot, husky, handsome—top series in Comet's '64 lineup. Engines range up to a 4-barrel Cyclone 289 cu. in. V-8 in all Comets.

"Caliente" means hot...

In Spanish. And this new Comet speaks the language. It looks hot. And it is! Your choice of four engines provides the punch. The top is a big Cyclone 289 V-8—most responsive in Comet's field. More choice:

Now Comet offers 3 series...

the top-of-the-line Caliente, and the economical 202 and 404 series. Ten models... all bold and racy. A wide transmission choice, too, including a smooth, silent, new Multi-Drive Merc-O-Matic—unmatched at the price.

Elegance at a compact price

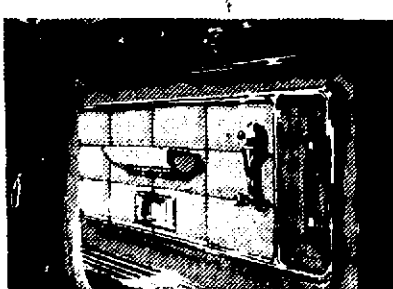

Prime example of Comet's new elegance is the Caliente, with the warm look of walnut on the interior trim... plus lavish biscuit-pattern upholstery.

Power steering... power brakes...

AM-FM radio... air conditioning... every luxury option is available in the new Comets. You can even get... but not! Ask your Mercury dealer about it. Soon.

100 Grand Didn't Last Very Long

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "100 Grand," ABC's widely promoted big money quiz show, has been abruptly cancelled after only three programs—a television record for a short life.

It was pulled from the network schedule because it was attracting steadily decreasing numbers of viewers, but the debate still goes on:

Did "100 Grand" become the season's first casualty because the public, once burned, is disenchanted with quiz shows of this type, no matter how honest? Or was it a complicated, pretentious and downright dull show to see? The answer probably is a combination of the two.

The network will fill the hole in next Sunday's schedule with a summary of the Valachi-Cosa Nostra hearings, and is expected to schedule "The Roosevelt Years," a documentary series made over a year ago, as the replacement.

who have backed forward-looking measures," the President said. "And their contribution," he said in his Little Rock speech, "may come as a surprise to those whose view of the South has been distorted by sensational headlines and noisy headline-speakers."

"The old South has had its problems, and those problems are not yet over. Nor are they over in the rest of the country."

"But there is rising every day, I believe, a new South—the new South—foreseen by Henry W. Grady nearly 80 years ago—the new South seen in your universities and cities and industries—the new South I have seen this morning at Greers Ferry Dam on the Little Red River."

"That dam and reservoir—and numerous dams and reservoirs throughout the Willie River and Arkansas River Basin—in a sense symbolize the new South," Kennedy said.

Grady was an Atlanta, Ga., newspaper editor who preached a rising South and national unity. Kennedy summed up the purpose of his trip today as to dedicate the dam "and to salute a delegation which typify the progress of this area."

He mentioned all six delegation members by first names and nicknames in his Little Rock text and ticked off in applauding fashion some of their accomplishments.

And that was a second time around for Kennedy—he had done the same thing earlier at the dam dedication.

He said Wilbur Mills is the man most responsible for House passage of an $11 billion tax cut bill and is in the debt of "every American who looks forward to a reduction in his federal income taxes as a safeguard against recession and as a means toward achieving a higher national income and a balanced federal budget."

Kennedy lauded Bill Fulbright as leader of the Senate floor fight placement.

NBC's new "Espionage" in its premiere program Wednesday night was less a spy story than a tale of an expedient killing. It was well produced and had a fine cast of actors with—praise be—new faces.

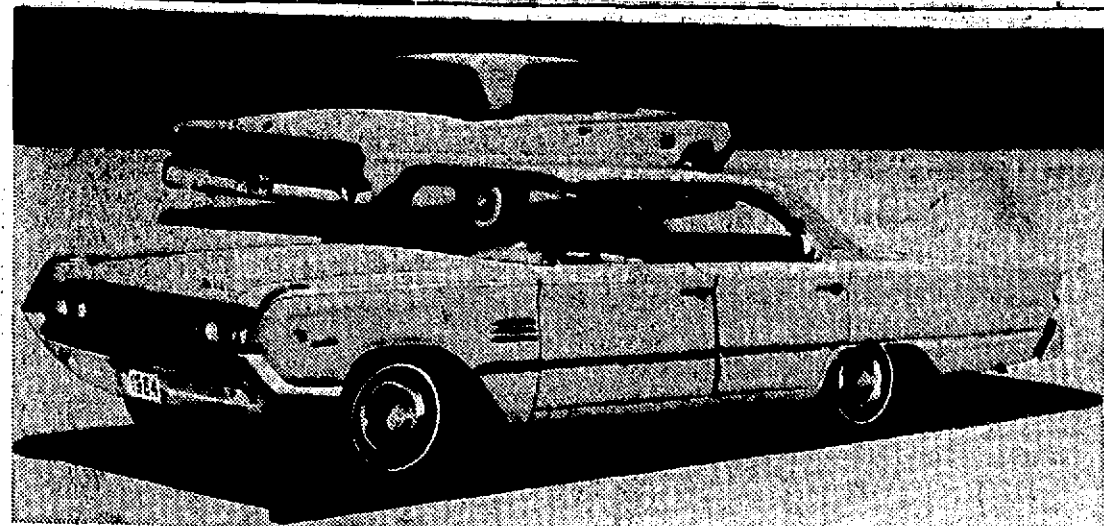

The series, produced in England, promises to be a most interesting addition to the network schedule.

CBS showed its first edition of "Chronicle," which will occasionally fill an early Wednesday evening spot. Under the coy title of "The French, They Are So French," the program sought, as it announced, to explain the Gallic national character mostly by dramatic excerpts from works by de Maupassant, Anouilh, Balzac and Cocteau.

The result was dull television. Channel Markers: Bing Crosby taped his Nov. 7 CBS special last Friday—without scheduled guest stars Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin. . . . Imogene Coca's "Grindl" hit Nielsen's top 10 shows with its premiere program last month, but succeeding scripts for the comedienne's series have to get better to keep it there.

CBS' Harry Reasoner has been named "roving correspondent" to cover major stories. . . . NBC's Richard Boone, out of action for 10 days from injuries in an auto crash, has returned to work. . . . ABC, promised the first American television interview with Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, has been beaten to its scoop by NBC, which plans one Friday on "Today." ABC's was scheduled for Sunday.

NBC pre-empted "Temple Houston" tonight (7:30-8:30 EDT) for a round-up of the Costa Nostra hearings. Perry Como makes his debut as star of an occasional variety hour (NBC 10-11).

The 1964 Mercury extends its coverage of the medium-priced market with two new series and a choice of two distinctive roof designs. A sporty four-door hardtop Marauder (rear) will be offered in addition to the unique breezeway models (front). A two-door hardtop Marauder, which was introduced last Spring, also will be offered. Mercury's two new series are the luxurious top-of-the-line Park Lane and the Montclair. Luxury and performance are emphasized with significant improvement in passenger comfort and spaciousness. The 1964 Mercury's six V-8 engines—two more than last year—range from 250 to 425 horsepower.

He mentioned all six delegation members by first names and nicknames in his Little Rock text and ticked off in applauding fashion some of their accomplishments.

And that was a second time around for Kennedy—he had done the same thing earlier at the dam dedication.

He said Wilbur Mills is the man most responsible for House passage of an $11 billion tax cut bill and is in the debt of "every American who looks forward to a reduction in his federal income taxes as a safeguard against recession and as a means toward achieving a higher national income and a balanced federal budget."

Kennedy lauded Bill Fulbright as leader of the Senate floor fight placement.

NBC's new "Espionage" in its premiere program Wednesday night was less a spy story than a tale of an expedient killing. It was well produced and had a fine cast of actors with—praise be—new faces.

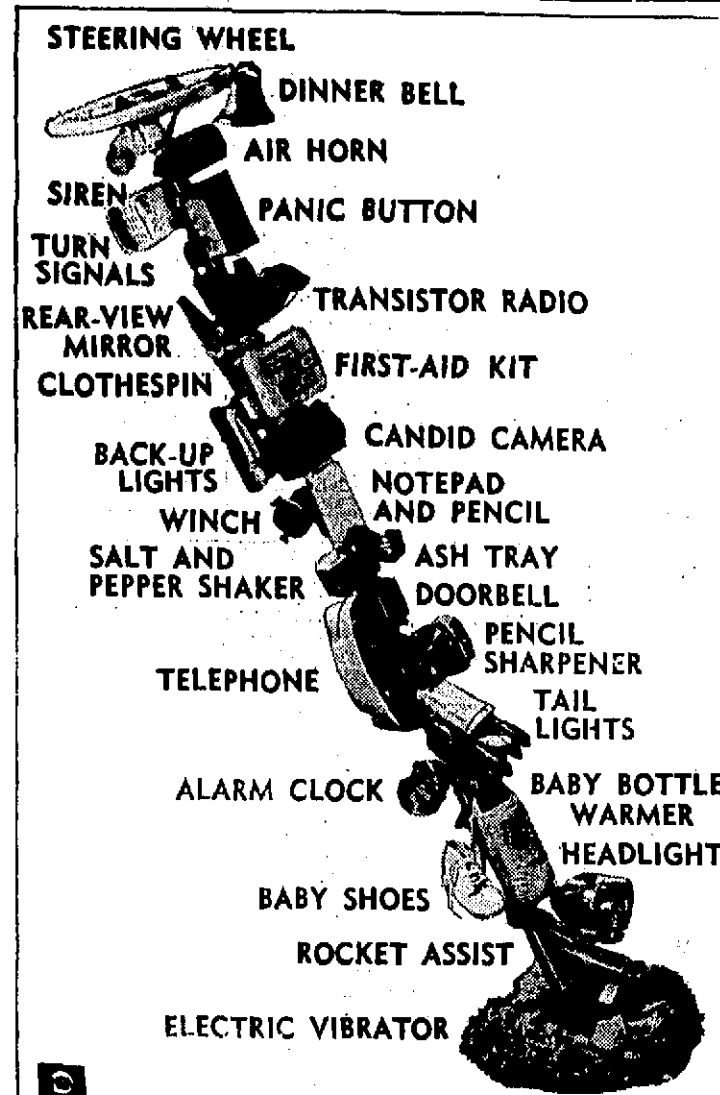

The series, produced in England, promises to be a most interesting addition to the network schedule.

CBS showed its first edition of "Chronicle," which will occasionally fill an early Wednesday evening spot. Under the coy title of "The French, They Are So French," the program sought, as it announced, to explain the Gallic national character mostly by dramatic excerpts from works by de Maupassant, Anouilh, Balzac and Cocteau.

The result was dull television. Channel Markers: Bing Crosby taped his Nov. 7 CBS special last Friday—without scheduled guest stars Frank Sinatra and Dean Martin. . . . Imogene Coca's "Grindl" hit Nielsen's top 10 shows with its premiere program last month, but succeeding scripts for the comedienne's series have to get better to keep it there.

CBS' Harry Reasoner has been named "roving correspondent" to cover major stories. . . . NBC's Richard Boone, out of action for 10 days from injuries in an auto crash, has returned to work. . . . ABC, promised the first American television interview with Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu, has been beaten to its scoop by NBC, which plans one Friday on "Today." ABC's was scheduled for Sunday.

NBC pre-empted "Temple Houston" tonight (7:30-8:30 EDT) for a round-up of the Costa Nostra hearings. Perry Como makes his debut as star of an occasional variety hour (NBC 10-11).

SUPERMOP—Designed for "the woman who has nothing and needs everything," this little household item carries just about every accessory the lady of the house might have a need for during the day. It's called the "Mad, Mad, Mad Mop" and costs just $149.95 complete ($2.98 without accessories). It comes in either right or left-hand models; a foot dimmer switch for the headlight is available at slight extra cost. The manufacturer, Du-Ali Co. of Geneva, Ohio, cautions that the mop cannot be sold in any state where there is a law against it.

that won ratification of the new treaty "ending the nuclear tests that pollute our air" and providing a first step toward peace.

Kennedy spoke of the determined fight against national crime and corruption led by Sen. John McClellan. He credited Rep. Oren Harris with guiding through the House a new law to build more medical and dental colleges. He said that Rep. Jim Trimble is "a key member of the all-important House Rules Committee," and "Took Gathings speaks for Arkansas and the United States in the House Committee on Agriculture."

In dedicating the dam, Kennedy was picking up where he left off on an 11-state conservation trip last week. He emphasized that such projects mean a strengthening of human and natural resources.

The $16.7 million Greers Ferry Dam, Kennedy said, is an impressive project that will produce impressive benefits to the state and nation.

"You will not find the members of the Arkansas delegation supporting waste and inefficiency in government," he said.

"But you will consistently find them supporting the development of our nation's resources. And with their help, with your help, with the help of millions of others who are determined to build the strength and greatness of this country, we shall continue to move ahead."

And the trip was something of a public bow to Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, the Arkansan who steered the administration's tax cut bill through the House as chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

Kennedy said the project will make maximum use of resources, increase employment opportunities, and expand the growth of the economy, and eventually will bring the nation and the treasury far more than its original cost.

"These projects protect and create wealth, new industries, new income, new incentives and interests," he said. "And the wealth they assure to one region becomes a market for another—so that the benefits of this project also help those who manufacture automobiles in Detroit, and those who produce steel in Pittsburgh, and those who make shoes in Massachusetts."

The President left at 10:23 a.m. (EDT) from Andrews Air Force Base, Md.

Factfinders Arrive in City of Birmingham

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Less than 24 hours after two presidential racial factfinders landed in Birmingham Sept. 24 a bomb exploded in a Negro neighborhood.

Since then, there has been a flurry of court activity and the arrest of three white men in the over-all bombing investigation.

The factfinders, former Army Secretary Kennedy Royall and former Army football coach Earl Blaik, have been meeting with every segment of Birmingham life.

President Kennedy sent the two men here to try to get at the core of the racial trouble in this big steel city.

On their arrival, Royall and Blaik described themselves as "friendly guests." They were greeted cordially by Mayor Albert Boutwell.

Mostly they have sat and listened to anyone who would talk to them. Details of the conversations have been kept secret. They will make them known in a report to the President.

Royall and Blaik are expected to present a secret summation of their findings to the mayor and City Council Friday. But it will not be a recommendation for action. This apparently will come in the report to Kennedy.

Although content of the conferences with local leaders has not been released, enough has seeped through to give an impression that the fact-finding team and the townspeople were impressed.

One utilities official who talked with Royall and Blaik said that they expressed surprise at the extent of integration—forced and voluntary—which the city has undergone.

The only blot on the visit has been the blunt refusal of former police commissioner Eugene Connor to meet with Royall and Blaik. Connor said he had nothing against the two men but that he didn't care to meet with any representative of the President.

The President acted after four Negro girls were killed in a church bombing. Twenty persons were hurt in the explosion and two Negro youths were shot to death in the violent hours which followed.

Indications are that Royall and Blaik have gathered all of the facts they need and will soon end their visit.

Kennedy carried Arkansas in 1960, but he took only three of the 11 states he toured last week.

Table cover-ups attractively conceal a table that has seen better days. Here a floor length round cloth of textured pale green Avril rayon-cotton blend is topped by a fresh white square of the same material for supper service. Both cloths are washable and need little ironing. Decorative rayon braid bordering cloths unifies the team.

Man Says Way Out of Jail

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark. (AP)—Grady Ross Keiser, sawed his way out of the Stone County jail at Mountain View early today.

Sheriff J. C. Storey said Keiser, in his 30s, had been held for three weeks on a forgery charge and was awaiting trial in circuit court.

Storey said Keiser was dressed in blue jeans and a blue shirt. He was described as slim, weighing about 140. He was believed unarmed and was not considered dangerous.

Keiser is a diabetic, Storey said, and would have to get medicine. He may be headed for Chicago where his sister lives, Storey added.

American Killed in Viet Nam Wednesday

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—An American special forces captain and eight Vietnamese soldiers were killed today when Communist guerrillas ambushed their truck, a U.S. spokesman reported.

The captain was the 60th American to die in combat in Viet Nam. Four Americans are missing in action and 53 have died in other causes.

Today's ambush occurred at 8 a.m. on a lonely road in Phuoc Long province about 65 miles northeast of Saigon.

The American was traveling in the lead truck of a two-truck supply convoy when a mine went off under it, throwing it off the road in pieces. The eight Vietnamese troops were on the same truck.

A second mine went off behind the truck. Then, guerrillas lying in ambush along the roadside, opened fire on the second truck but the soldiers dismounted and returned the fire. The Communists then withdrew, the American spokesman said.

No guerrilla casualties were reported.

Killed in Wreck Near Mena

BIG CEDAR, Okla. (AP)—John M. Gordon, 65, of Mena, Ark., was killed Tuesday night when the car in which he was riding ran off the road and hit a guard post and a tree.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol said he was riding in a car driven by J. V. Townsend, 65, also of Mena, and Townsend had swerved to avoid hitting cattle on the highway. Townsend was critically injured.

Arkansas is actually growing more timber than is being cut.

For '64: the price is medium... the action maximum... the car is Mercury

PARK LANE, WITH RACY MARAUDER STYLING

The "action" is provided by the type of V-8 engines that have made Mercury the new performance champion of the medium-price field—demonstrated in open competition including the most recent Pikes Peak Climb. A 390 cu. in. V-8 is standard, a 427 V-8 optional. And only Mercury offers you two entirely different styling choices in one great car.

Mercury delivers more than the usual in all these ways: more performance, with the most responsive engines in its field. More leg room, head room, and entry room. More trunk space—11 suitcases big (17.1 cu. ft.) and a far greater styling choice: racy Marauder styling (above) or unique Breezeway Designer (right), with the only rear window that opens for ventilation, stays clearer in rain or snow. ## Special Buses for Dedication

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Plans to run special buses to Heber Springs for the appearance of President Kennedy at the dedication of Greers Ferry Dam Thursday were cancelled today by the bus companies.

A spokesman for the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce said he was told by the bus companies that only nine persons had inquired about tickets.

The cancelled buses were to have run from War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock if enough tickets were sold.

The chamber has chartered four buses to go to Greers Ferry on its regular "tour of the month." The spokesman said the tour normally attracts only about 40 persons but this month, because of the Kennedy visit, 150 persons signed up.

Major Cattle Drive Starts

ELK MOUNTAIN, Wyo. (AP)—A major cattle drive is under way in southeastern Wyoming.

Cowpunchers were driving 2,500 steers from Elk Mountain to Hanna, where they'll be placed on a train for shipment to Galesburg, Ill.

The final 12 miles of the 30-mile drive was ahead today.

Winrock Winners

MEMPHIS (AP) — Santa Gertrudis cattle from Winrock Farm near Morrilton have won the grand championships and all group classes at the Mid-South fair at Memphis. Winrock's Bondigo 956-1 was the senior and grand champion bull and WR Miss Bondigo 985-1 took top honors in the female division.

TOP — Oldsmobile's 98 series for 1964 is elegant and distinctively styled. New rear quarter profile further emphasizes the long sleek look of this most luxurious series. The 98 Holiday Sports sedan, shown above, is one of six 98 models for 1964. Powered by Oldsmobile's 394-cubic-inch Rocket engine, all 98 models feature power steering, power brakes and Hydra-Matic transmission as standard equipment.

BOTTOM — The new Jetstar 88 series for 1964 is a lower-priced companion to the high-performing Dynamic 88 and Super 88. The Holiday sedan, shown above, is one of four models in this new Oldsmobile series. A new lightweight, cast-iron Jetfire Rocket V-8 engine, delivering 245 h.p. and an optional 290 h.p. version, are teamed with an entirely new Jetaway automatic transmission, available at extra cost.

What's New?

A Glimpse From Oldsmobile For '64

Retractable outer seat belts for added convenience and neater appearance, a chambered exhaust system, another first from Oldsmobile, and wire wheel discs designed to further emphasize the sports car flair of the 1964 models. The deluxe seat belts feature retractors on outboard belts which automatically coil up upon release. Their newly-designed buckles permit easier adjustment. The newly-developed chambered exhaust system emphasizes the "Starfire sound of muted power". The wire wheel discs are one of six new wheel discs offered by Oldsmobile for 1964.

Everybody Is Safe

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—R. J. Lee of Joplin, Mo. his wife and another couple were reported safe at Russellville, Ark. after the plane in which they were riding disappeared on a homeward flight from Little Rock. An Arkansas Civil Air Patrol Flier located the plane at the Russellville airport and said the passengers went to a motel after landing at Russellville. The plane had been expected to stop at Conway, Ark. on the way back to Joplin.

Remodeling Bids

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Two bids for remodeling the old library building at Arkansas State Teachers College have been rejected as too high, college president Dr. Silas Snow announced Saturday. Both bids were for about $125,000 and only $90,000 was appropriated for the project. The old building will be used for classrooms and buildings for other purposes.

A Long Time Between Classes

LIBBY, Mont. (AP)—It was a long time between classes for 15-year-old Billie Jo French, a sophomore at Libby High School.

For four years she lived on a ranch too far from town and too far from school bus routes.

Her parents moved from Blair, Neb., to a ranch 40 miles west of Libby after Billie Jo finished the fifth grade. She kept up with her school work by taking correspondence courses from the University of Nebraska.

The family bought a new ranch a mile from Libby recently and Billie Jo returned to school.

Figures Hope Too Strong for Malvern

By BILL SIMMONS Associated Press Staff Writer

Texarkana won't come as a surprise to Little Rock, so don't count on another upset by the Razorbacks.

They caught Pine Bluff unaware early this season and battled the Zebraws to a 7-7 tie in a game of rugged defense.

With the tie hanging over their heads, the Zebraws produced a no-or-die effort last week to overcome Fort Smith 7-6 at Pine Bluff.

A loss would almost certainly have put Pine Bluff on the far fringe of the Big Ten Conference football race, since it would have given the Z's a loss and a tie on their record.

Fort Smith, even with a loss on its record, can't be counted out of the race. Most Big Ten coaches agreed before the season began that the conference champion would not go unbeaten this year.

The tie at Texarkana will hang like an ax over the Zebraws' heads the rest of the year. But the secret is out of the bag now, and Texarkana can't hope for the same kind of shock treatment against Hall's miracle-making Warriors Friday night at Texarkana.

Last week we sank to our lowest percentage of the season for Big Ten picks. 739. But we haven't had any trouble picking the games in the state's highest classification, so here goes:

PINE BLUFF 20, Blytheville 13. The Chicks will be mighty high, and they've been mighty impressive. Even that narrow triumph over West Memphis last week was understandable — the Blue Devils are a top-notch Class AA outfit. Pine Bluff probably will not be as high this week.

EL DORADO 14, North Little Rock 13. Two sound clubs, with size, a reasonable measure of speed, and the game is at El Dorado.

FORT SMITH 20, Jonesboro 6. The Hurricane will have this one at home, but, despite last week's loss, the Grizzlies are too tough up front.

LITTLE ROCK HALL 21, Texarkana 6. Trifling — and the surprise element is gone.

LITTLE ROCK CENTRAL 14, Hot Springs 0. A bad day (for the Trojans) at Little Rock, just like at home.

Now, the Class AA ranks.

Rogers 13, Fayetteville 7. Coming off a loss to Springfield, Mo., Central, Rogers should be tough.

Mountain Home 20, Harrison 0. Mountain Home's potent pass.

Springdale 7, Van Buren 0. The offense that scores the most.

Subiaco 13, Fort Smith Southside 0. The Trojans will be too strong for all — sophomore Southside.

Forrest City 20, Helena 7. Forrest City impressed against Paragould last week.

West Memphis 20, Paragould 6. Speed is the difference.

Stuttgart 21, DeWitt 7. The 2-2 record doesn't do the Ricebirds justice.

Marianna 7, Wynne 0. Wynne has pulled some surprises this season, but Marianna should be set for them.

Benton 12, Little Rock Catholic 7. The Panthers looked better against the Big Ten foes.

Conway 14, Jacksonville 7. The Wampus Cats won't administer the shellacking Lakeside did, but they'll get the job done.

Mabelvale 30, Sylvan Hills 14. The Lions' manpower edge.

Morrilton 14, Searcy 7. With respect for Gary Overstreet.

Arkadelphia 7, Camden 6. Arkadelphia tied Prescott last week, Camden lost to Fordyce. You pick it.

Hope 19, Malvern 14. Too many muscles on these Bobcats.

Smackover 12, Magnolia 13. Crowd-pleaser.

Camden Fairview 13, Gurdon 0. Or worse.

Former Hope Bobcats Doing Well at College

The two former Bobcats from Hope High School Larry Walton No. 55 and Roy Wray No. 24 turned in good performances against Ouachita Baptist College last Friday night in Arkadelphia for the Bears of the Arkansas State Teachers College. After being down 6-13 at the end of the first half, the Bears came roaring back and nailed a 42-13 licking on the Tigers.

Walton, the 6'3", 200 pound end, caught two passes for 16 yards and a touchdown. He is respected for his offensive work and is a three year veteran of the Bears.

Palmer Scheduled to Play at Whitmarsh

By RALPH BERNSTEIN Associated Press Sports Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Arnell Palmer's right shoulder still hurts, but he's going to play in the $125,000 Whitmarsh Open Golf Tournament starting today in hopes of maintaining his position as the year's leading money winner.

The Latrobe, Pa., better hasn't won any major titles this year. As they say on the tourney trail, Arnie hasn't won anything but money. Now his lofty status as top cash man is in jeopardy.

Should Masters and PGA champion Jack Nicklaus take home the $26,000 first money at the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club he would probably replace Palmer at the top of the cash list.

After playing nine holes of the 6,800-yard par 72 Whitmarsh course Wednesday, Palmer said his shoulder still bothered him. He experimented with various shots, playing even par golf.

Palmer has earned $161,555 in 10 tournaments this year, while Nicklaus has pocketed $84,320 in 22.

In addition to Palmer and Nicklaus, who arrived here late Wednesday from Japan, most of the top pros are seeking the first prize jackpot. U.S. Open champion Julius Boros, British Open champ Bob Charles, Tony Lema and Gary Player, fourth and fifth leading money winners, respectively, Dow Finsterwald, Bruce Crampton, Bobby Nichols and Bill Casper either are here or expected before Friday's 3 a.m. tee off.

The tournament serves as a tune-up for the Ryder Cup matches next week in Atlanta.

The promoters, who are sharing receipts with a local charity, appear unconcerned with the competition of the World Series and college and professional football. They expect capacity crowds for each day of the four-day, 72-hole play. Typical Indian summer October weather is predicted.

Speedster Added by Canadians

MONTREAL (AP)—The Montreal Abolition of the Canadian Football League cut 10-year veteran center Joe Sturges Wednesday night to make way for half-back Tom Gates, a 24-year-old speedster from California.

Mantle Had a Premonition

NEW YORK (AP)—Mickey Mantle must have had a premonition about Wednesday's Yankee loss in the World Series opener.

After taking his first swings in the batting cage during the pregame workout, Mantle tossed his bat aside and said:

"Looks like it's going to be a bad day."

Mantle struck out twice, walked once and lifted a soft popup for

Dodgers Find They Are Now the Favorite

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The under-rated Dodgers of Los Angeles, the object of new respect, suddenly found themselves slight favorites today to win the World Series following their 5-2 triumph over Whitey Ford and the New York Yankees in Wednesday's opener.

The Yankees were 7 1/2-to-5 favorites to win today behind young Al Downing, who faces veteran Johnny Podres in another left-handed pitching duel. But the odds-makers now have made the Dodgers an 11-to-10 choice to take the series. The Yankees had been a pre-series 7 1/2-to-5 pick.

Sandy Koufax, baseball's best pitcher, changed these odds with one of the finest pitching performances in series history. The 27-year-old Brooklyn-born southpaw established a series strikeout record by fanning 15 Yankees as he held the American League champions to six hits, losing his bid for a shutout when Tom Tresh smacked an eighth inning homer with Tony Kubek on base.

"We haven't seen anyone in our league who compares with him," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk. "He was every bit as good as we were led to believe."

Koufax, weakened by a siege of flu that hit him last week, simply overpowered the hard-bitting Yankees, retiring 14 straight batters until Elston Howard singled with two out in the fifth. He fanned the first five Yankees to tie a 19-year-old record held by Mort Cooper of the 1944 St. Louis Cardinals.

The 15 strikeouts topped the previous record set by Carl Erskine, another Dodger, who fanned 14 Yankees in a game in the 1953 series, exactly 10 years before to the day. The Yankee pitchers struck out 10 Dodgers for a combined total of 25, another series mark, bettering the 22 collected by the Cards and Browns in the 1944 all-St. Louis series.

Ford, in a record-making seventh series opener, lasted just five innings, during which he was tagged for eight of the Dodgers' nine hits and all their runs.

The big hit was a three-run homer by John Roseboro, the left-handed hitting catcher, who had not hit a home run against a left-handed pitcher during the entire 1963 campaign.

Sandy, who said he felt weak in the early innings, tired in the middle innings, and "a little weak again" at the end, had a couple of anxious moments but weathered the storm each time.

Joe Pepitone and Cleo Boyer followed Howard's two-out hit in the fifth with singles to fill the bases, but Koufax fired a third strike past pinch hitter Hector Lopez to end that threat. Sandy walked two batters in succession with one out in the sixth but disposed of Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris on infield popups.

Stops Breathing After a Tackle

BIG PINEY, Wyo. (AP)—A 17-year-old Big Piney youth who stopped breathing for four minutes after tackling an opponent in a high school football game was reported in serious condition today.

Gary Vickery, a star guard on the Big Piney team, suffered head injuries on the third play of the game Wednesday when he tackled a Saratoga runner in a big pileup of players.

The youth lost consciousness and stopped breathing. His coach, Otto Low, used mouth-to-mouth resuscitation to revive him.

At the plate, Bright swung — missed.

The crowd stood in a standing ovation.

Koufax Is Very Critical of His Own Hurling

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"I thought I made quite a few bad pitches I got away with."

With those self-critical words Dodger dandy Sandy Koufax wrapped up one of the most striking World Series performances in the history of the 60-year-old baseball classic.

Koufax hummed his array of fastballs, changes and curves past the New York Yankees in the series opener Wednesday and struck out a record 15 batters en route to a 5-2 Los Angeles victory.

"To tell the truth," said Koufax after surpassing the 14 strikeouts posted by former Dodger Carl Erskine against the Yankees exactly 10 years before, "I didn't feel as good as I would have liked."

"After batting practice," said Koufax, "I became conscious of the fact this was an important game. I don't know how intense I was but I was trying to do a good job."

After he struck out nine in four innings, "I started to feel tired," Koufax said, "then I lost my rhythm."

Pitching coach Joe Becker said "I told him he was trying to force himself. I noticed his coordination wasn't good in the sixth inning and he was overstriding."

Koufax corrected that.

After strikeouts 13 and 14—Pinch hitter Phil Linz and Bobby Richardson — Tom Tresh tagged the Yankees two runs.

Koufax then walked Mickey Mantle and Dodger manager Walter Alston hustled out to the mound. "I told Sandy I didn't want him to pitch too fine to Maris. I said even if Maris hits one out of here, we're not hurt."

Maris grounded out.

"I didn't think about the strikeout record," Koufax said. "But when I came off after the eighth, I saw they had flashed the note on the score board that I had tied Carl's record. But then Harry Bright's up with two out and a man on in the last of the ninth and I'm aware I have to get him out."

The count moved to 3-2. Koufax went into his move, came around with the smooth, picturesque motion—fired.

At the plate, Bright swung — missed.

The crowd stood in a standing ovation.

Bobcats Go to Malvern Friday Night

By CARTER HARDAGE Hope Star Sports Writer

The Bobcats see conference action this week, traveling to the home of the Malvern Leopards. Malvern has a 1-1 league record so far, felling Crossett 20-6, before winding up on the short end of a 6-0 bout with first place Magnolia.

Hope's only conference start resulted in the 33-14 rout of Smackover.

The Leopards have a more or less balanced attack. They have good speed. They pass from a spread formation. This is where the quarterback gets the ball ten yards back, from about a short punt position.

Coach Bill Hunt plays Burton-type football, since he was once assistant under Coach Burton. The Leopards would like nothing better than to come up a rung from their third place position at the expense of Cats. Fans are encouraged to follow the Bobcats to Malvern and give them the support that they deserve.

Porkers Work on Their Kicking and Defense

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Arkansas worked on its kicking game and defending power plays Wednesday in preparation for a Dad's Day Southwest Conference football battle with Texas Christian Saturday afternoon at Fayetteville.

There was bad news for Coach Frank Broyles. It came from Fort Worth, Tex.

TCU's two first string cripples—safety man Jerry Jack Terrell and left tackle Joe Owens—worked out Wednesday. Only Terrell is expected to play against Arkansas.

Owens sustained a sprained ankle against Florida State last week. Terrell suffered a bruised back muscle.

Missouri made good gains against Arkansas last week with power plays, and Broyles apparently was thinking TCU might try the same.

"Your first conference game is always the most important game of the season," Broyles said about the upcoming opener.

He said TCU was much stronger than the team the Razorbacks walloped by 30 points last season, and he said it was not only his opinion.

"That's the opinion of their coaches, too," he said.

Mitchell Would Change New Rule

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP)—Coach Jack Mitchell of Kansas says the new college football substitution rule "is ridiculous and so bad I'm in favor of changing it at mid-season."

"It's confusing to coaches, players and even to fans," Mitchell said Wednesday.

"It's injurious to players, Walley Mahle, Syracuse quarterback, had to stay in the game two plays against us because of the rule. In another game on television a boy had to play without shoes for a while."

The Kansas coach said he is forced to spend much of his time during each game thinking about substitutions and one assistant devotes all his time to this phase.

The new rule, in effect, prohibits more than two substitutions in the interval before a fourth down and the interval prior to the down when the ball changes hands.

Any number of players can be substituted at other times.

Grocers Dislike the Stamp Plan

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Howard G. Cain, state director of the Federal Surplus Commodities Program, says many small grocers in Independence County are beginning to take a second look at the experimental federal food stamp program underway in the county.

Cain said many stamp plan participants are going to larger grocery stores where they can get a wider selection of foods.

"I understand that many families pay their accounts with the small country stores, and don't bother to come back," Cain said.

Cain said when the stamp program was first started, both small and large grocers were enthusiastic about it.

The county discarded the federal surplus commodities program in favor of the food stamp program. Cain said last month 418 households were declared eligible for the program and were allocated $6,330 worth of food stamps. He said they received $5,540 worth of bonus stamps for a total of $11,770. Under the surplus commodities program, Cain said, a year ago 3,517 of 4,873 eligible persons received free foodstuffs which had a retail value of $3,000—about twice the amount under the stamp plan.

The stamp program has been underway for seven months. Cain continued, so far without any conclusive findings. He said the best measure of the program would come in December, January and February when no farm jobs are available.

The program cannot be realistically evaluated while employment is holding up, Cain said.

Independence County was selected as one of the few sites in the nation for testing the food stamp program. It is designed to help carry employable workers temporarily out of work through low income months.

Has Praise for 'Lilies in the Field'

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Once in a rare while a movie comes along with a gentle humanity that communicates directly to the heart. "Lilies of the Field" is such a film.

The story is this: A young Negro construction worker, drifting through the Southwest in his station wagon, stops for water at a ranch house inhabited by five immigrant nuns. The mother superior believes the visit is providential, that he has been sent to help them build a chapel in which the local citizens could worship. He does—against all odds and his own better judgment—then drifts on.

It is a simple tale that might have emerged a trifle, except for the loving care that obviously went into its making. Working on a $248,000 budget, near Tucson, Ariz., the producer-director evoked from James Poe's script a beautiful parable. The mother nun, well played by Towering girders... whitening space capsules... hand crafted in sculptured rugged plastic... make up the all-new Walt Disney Tomorrowland Rocket Ride. An exciting "space adventure" awaits every youngster with the greatest toy concept in 50 years. The Rocket Ride is a giant motorized construction toy loaded with action and play value. Amazingly enough, it goes together without nuts, bolts, screws or glue. Assembled, it stands 2-1/2 feet tall. Each piece is designed for easy slip-fit. Features 8 rotating space capsules, 12 giant girders and structural members. Youngsters will put it together... take it apart... hundreds of times. The Rocket Ride is one of four such construction toys developed in California by Wen-Mac Corporation, subsidiary of American Machine & Foundry Company. The toys are making their initial appearance during the Christmas season.

Some Facts About Life in Arkansas

By J. C. TILLMAN
Associated Press Staff Writer

In Korea, the conference room of the 73rd Heavy Tank Battalion has just been dedicated to William C. Earnest of Watson Chapel near Pine Bluff.

In September, 1950, Earnest was in the lead tank at Suwon, Korea, when a direct hit from an enemy tank knocked it out.

The tank gunner was killed outright, the company commander fatally wounded and the drivers seriously hurt.

Earnest, with both feet blown off, crawled down the rear deck of the tank through a hail of small arms fire to warn other tanks of the trap.

He won the Distinguished Service Cross.

He is now living with his family on a 20-acre plot near Watson Chapel. For years he drove a gravel truck—without special aids.

Little Michael Scott of Newport just plain got tired of Momma complaining that the slide on his swing set wore out the seat of his pants.

So he took to using the slide as a launching pad for his four-wheeled scooter.

The ride is a bit bumpy at the end—but no more nagging.

Of the hundreds of letters received by the Heber Springs Chamber of Commerce regarding President Kennedy's visit today, only a dozen or so were critical in nature.

One of the few critical letters came from a woman named Kennedy.

TLG—tender loving care—paid off for 10-year-old Heather Glidewell of Greenland near Fayetteville.

The TLG went to a lamb named Smoky, from bottle feeding as a baby to milk soap flake baths and careful grooming.

Smoky, Heather's mother Mrs. W. E. Glidewell says, looked like a "big ball of white cotton" just before she was judged in the Washington County Fair.

But Smoky took the open division of the ram lamb class—beating out his conventionally raised brother.

The brother ram was entered by sheep raising expert Polk Bookout, who sold Smoky to Heather, then helped her raise him.

12 Negroes Are Hurt in Wreck

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Twelve Negroes were injured, seven of them critically, in a head-on crash between an automobile and a farm tractor just north of Crawfordville Tuesday night. The injured included men, women and children.

The seven most seriously hurt were hospitalized at Memphis. All were unconscious. Three were placed in an intensive care unit. The other victims were hospitalized at West Memphis.

Deputy Gladstone Williams of the Crittenden County Sheriff's Office said "the car was going north and the tractor was going south. The car crossed to the wrong side of the road and hit the tractor, which was carrying two people and pulling a wagon loaded with cotton."

"Bodies were scattered all over the place when I got there," he said. "There was a lot of screaming. The tractor was torn to pieces."

He said three ambulances took the injured away. No names or addresses were released.

Weives Hearing

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Carroll D. Mallett, 25, of North Little Rock, waived a preliminary hearing in municipal court Tuesday and was bound over to Pulaski Circuit Court, charged with the $897 robbery of a supermarket Saturday night. Bond was set at $5,000. He also is charged at Russellville in the robbery of the bank of Atkins and at Wichita, Kan., in another supermarket robbery.

FIVE LITTLE girls the world took to its heart—the Dionne quintuplets at age 3, in the summer of 1937. At right, Yvonne hugs Marie. Annette hugs Emilie, at left, Cecile is too fascinated by the camera to join in the display of sisterly affection.

Arkansan Seeks Kiwanis Post

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—James L. Sheets of Siloam Springs, Ark., defeated Jack A. Hawkins of Little Rock, Ark., in the contest for governor-elect of Kiwanis International Tuesday.

Little Rock was selected for the next convention. Sheets will become governor after Elmer H. Austermann Jr. of St. Louis serves during 1964. Austermann succeeds Linus W. Bartels of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Joe B. Chumley of Batesville, Ark., was elected treasurer and E. W. Tucker of Columbia, Mo., was re-elected secretary.

Sheets, a member of the Siloam Springs club since 1953, was Missouri - Arkansas district treasurer this year. The election closed the three-day convention.

MOP Plans $5.5 Million Construction

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Missouri Pacific Lines plans a $5.5 million construction program between Russellville and Spadra Junction south of Clarksville to keep tracks from the waters of Dardanelle Reservoir.

The project includes raising 10 miles of track in its present location, building seven miles of new track parallel to old track and building five new bridges.

Bids were opened on five of the seven segments Tuesday at MOP headquarters in St. Louis, Mo., but were not made public.

Army Engineers will reimburse the railroad for construction costs. Target date for completion is Sept. 30, 1964, when the gates of Dardanelle Dam will be closed to fill the reservoir.

W. C. Van Meter, chief of the relocation section of the Army Engineers at Little Rock, said train traffic would not be interrupted.

Viennese Lilia Skala, never loses her toughness. And her unwilling charge, Sidney Poitier, remains a realist to the end.

There is no dogma, no preaching, no conversion. The visitor remains a baptist.

Poitier's performance is as wonderful as was Ernest Borgnine's in "Marty" and may well win him a similar reward next Oscar season.

"Lilies of the Field" is a triumph for Ralph Nelson, a television veteran whose only previous film was "Requiem for a Heavyweight."

The printed credits puzzled me in that there was no mention of the actor who played an important role as a tough construction boss who helps the church project; nor did he appear when the cast was flashed on the screen at the end. The role was played by Ralph Nelson.

Light Mood at Cotton Contest

BLYTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus set a light mood Tuesday night at the National Cotton Picking Contest celebration and became a "Cotton Picking Citizen" of Blytheville.

"This is the first time I've officially been called a cotton picking governor," he quipped.

He told a crowd which overflowed a parking lot that Arkansas does not have a bad image. If it did, he said, there would not be so many Arkansans in honorable places.

He cited Maj. Gen. Winston Wilson of Arkadelphia, head of the National Guard Bureau, and Nelson Cox, Arkansas Game and Fish Commission Director who was recently elected to a national wildlife office.

Arkansans are notoriously friendly and neighborly, Faubus said.

He said there are two events which annually put the national spotlight on Arkansas—the National Cotton Picking Contest and the National Duck Calling Contest at Stuttgart.

Ray Gill, President of the Blytheville Junior Chamber of Commerce, made Faubus a "Cotton Picking Citizen" of Blytheville.

Ashdown Against New Courthouse

ASHDOWN, Ark. (AP)—It appeared Tuesday that Little River County residents had turned down a proposal to build a new courthouse at Ashdown.

With 12 of 16 boxes counted, the vote was 739 against construction, 299 in favor of it. A 3/75 mill building tax of finance construction was losing 739 to 309.

There were not enough votes in the remaining boxes to alter the election trend, an official said.

Warns State of Forest Fire Danger

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Forester Fred Lang warned today that the forest fire danger in Arkansas has reached about the same potential as in 1952 when the state lost almost a quarter of a million acres in fires.

Lang said he is getting out a letter to large landowners and industries which normally provide men and equipment to help fight fires that October will be an especially dangerous month.

"The hazards keep building up," Lang said. "Actually I can't understand how we have been getting off so light."

In 1952, the state had 7,326 fires which burned over 237,720 acres and October was the worst month.

Through Sept. 1 this year, there were 3,865 fires and 142,734 burned acres.

The principle cause of the danger, Lang said, is a shortage of rain. He said the state carried over a 6.5 inch shortage of rain last year and rainfall is 16 inches below normal this year.

"The ground is powder dry way down," he said. "The trees have stopped growing. Some are turning color already."

Lang said district foresters were busy contacting landowners lining up a force to fight the fires when they come.

Adding to the danger, Lang said, is the fact that some hunting seasons now are open and "We usually have some additional fires started by carelessness during the hunting seasons."

Despite the danger potential, Tuesday was a relatively light fire day with 131 acres destroyed in 25 fires, mostly in south Arkansas. The areas around Sheridan and Ashdown suffered most of the damage Tuesday, Lang said.

HEAD LINE—Michigan football coach Bump Elliott stands ready to check his roster and a line of shiny helmets awaits the heads of the squad coming out for practice.

Ex-Senator Has Broken Hip

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Former U.S. Sen. Theodore Francis Green is confined to bed with a broken hip, it was disclosed today.

Edward Higgins, Green's secretary, said the former senator, whose 96th birthday is today, broke a hip in an accident in his home about three weeks ago. He was not hospitalized.

Green, a bachelor, retired from the Senate in 1960. He was the oldest man ever to serve in Congress. A Democrat, Green entered the Senate at age 69 after serving two terms as governor of Rhode Island.

AEA Control Is Sanctioned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
VIENNA, Austria (AP) — The West and the Soviet bloc have joined in authorizing the International Atomic Energy Agency to begin a program of control over nuclear reactors in countries receiving aid from the agency.

Purpose of the inspection plan is to prevent nations from using nuclear plants developed with the agency's assistance from producing military materials.

The idea was approved Tuesday at the concluding session of the agency's seventh general conference.

The plan is expected to become effective next year.

Russians Get Moon Shot News

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda today gave the Soviet public its first news of President Kennedy's proposal 12 days ago for a joint U.S.-Soviet moon exploration effort.

The information appeared in a reprint in Pravda of a recent column by Walter Lippmann praising Kennedy's proposal.

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, made no comment on the proposal.

Killed in Wreck

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Alma Hunter Jr., 27, a Negro of Chidester, was killed Monday night when the car he was driving collided with one driven by Floyd G. Weems of Gurdon on Highway 24, seven miles west of Camden.

Douglas Weems, also of Gurdon, a passenger in Floyd Weems' car, was seriously injured and hospitalized at Camden.

Christine Back Before a Court

LONDON (AP) — Christine Keeler was accused in court today of blurring a Negro ex-lover for a beating actually administered by a girl friend's brother.

A crown prosecutor made the accusation at the start of a magistrate's hearing to determine whether the 21-year-old femme fatale of the Profumo scandal and three co-defendants will stand trial on perjury and other charges.

The Negro ex-lover was Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon, a Jamaican jazz singer. On June 7 he was convicted on an assault charge brought by the red-haired prostitute and sentenced to three years in prison.

Seven weeks later a court threw out the conviction on the basis of evidence that was not disclosed then. The charges against Christine and the others followed. All four have been free on bail.

Prosecutor John Buzzard said Christine was beaten up at least once on April 17 at an apartment she shared with Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23. But he declared she was pummeled by John Hamilton-Marshall, Paula's 27-year-old brother, before Gordon ever arrived.

Buzzard said Gordon burst into the apartment building some time afterward and struggled with Christine and another of her Negro friends, Rudolph Fenton, 39.

The prosecutor said police were called and Gordon fled. He said Miss Keeler, Miss Hamilton-Marshall, their housekeeper, Mrs. Olive Brooker, 56, Fenton and Peter Camacchio, another arrival at the apartment, decided to blame everything on Gordon.

At Gordon's trial in April all three women testified against the singer. They made no mention of any assault by Hamilton-Marshall.

The three women are charged with perjury and, with Fenton, of conspiracy to subvert justice.

Lane Agrees to Meet Ortiz

MUSKOGON, Mich. (AP)—Ken Lane has agreed to meet world lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz in a title match on the West Coast later this year, his manager said today.

Pete Petroskey wired acceptance of an offer by Los Angeles promoter George Parnassus.

"We've got no choice but to take it," said Petroskey of the offer. Ortiz will receive $50,000, or 40 per cent of the gate, while the Muskogon left-hander would get $10,000.

Lane and Ortiz have met twice before each taking one victory. Neither bout was for the lightweight crown.

Apple Appointed

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Laurence S. Rockefeller, honorary chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Outdoor Recreation Resources Review Commission Report, has appointed W. M. Apple of Little Rock to the committee.

Warns U.S. to Keep Hands Off

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuban armed forces Vice Minister Maj. Efigenio Alfamejras has warned the United States to keep its hands off Cuba or suffer the consequences.

"If the imperialists stick their hands into Cuba again, we will cut them off," Alfamejras said according to a Havana radio broadcast heard in Miami.

Identity Tags for Stock Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Identification tags for cows moving from one state to another are being proposed by the Agriculture Department as a part of joint federal-state efforts to eradicate brucellosis.

The tags would identify farms or ranches from which the animals came. When tested at shipping points, animals found to have the disease could easily be traced to farms or origin.

Interested persons have been given 30 days from today in which to submit written views.

Ruling on Closing of Cafeteria

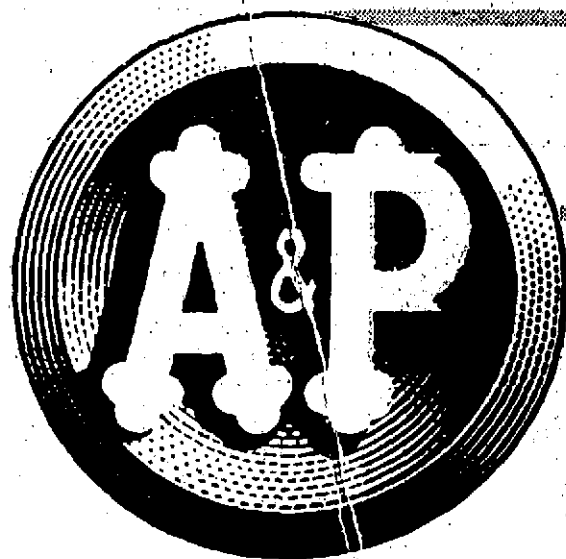

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A Bruce Hunt of Washington, a National Labor Relations Board examiner, took under advisement Thursday the question of whether a Little Rock cafeteria closed because its employees voted to join a union.

Hunt gave officials of Morrison's Cafeteria and of the Hotel, Motel and Restaurant Employees Union five days to file briefs as he concluded a two-day hearing Thursday.

Cafeteria employees voted 27-15 to join the union, and Morrison's closed the next day. Cafeteria officials maintain it closed because it had lost steadily since it opened.

Norwegian Ship Sinks, Crew Saved

LE HAVRE, France (AP)—The 4,600-ton Norwegian freighter Ronda sank in port today after a collision with the 6,100-ton American freighter Lucile Bloomfield. The crew was rescued.

Mrs. Kennedy Arrives Abroad

ATHENS (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy, wife of the U.S. president, arrived today aboard a TWA jet airliner to begin a 15-day autumn vacation in Greece.

Her sister, Princess Lee Radziwili, awaited her at the airport with U.S. Ambassador Henry R. Labouisse.

Mrs. Kennedy and her sister kissed as the U.S. First Lady stepped from the plane ramp. Then they left in a U.S. embassy car for a 15-mile drive to Mrs. Kennedy's rented vacation villa at Cavouri on the Saronic Gulf.

A special berth was set up for Mrs. Kennedy for the transatlantic flight. It was the first time TWA had provided a berth for a passenger on one of its superjets, which make the flight in about seven hours. Officials said special permission had to be obtained from the Federal Aviation Agency in Washington.

Diplomat Accused of Procuring

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — A foreign diplomat was accused Tuesday night of procuring prostitutes at a price for guests of his embassy.

Police identified him as the charge d'affaires of one of the smaller embassies in Copenhagen.

The disclosure came in the midst of an investigation of a vice ring that provided call girls at $50 to $100 each.

Law Study School

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Some 300 lawyers and judges were expected to attend the three-day University of Arkansas Law School's annual Fall Legal Institute, which begins Thursday. Emphasis will be on a new corporation code which will be submitted to the 1965 state legislature.

Other Nations Have Money Problems

ADV for Wednesday Pms Oct.2
EDITOR'S NOTE The U.S. balance of payments deficit is unique in many respects. But Sam Dawson, AP business news analyst, in this, third of five articles on the problem, says that other nations can get into the same trouble, and have.

Today's Business Mirror
By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—You hear a lot today about red-ink bookkeeping in U.S. accounts with the rest of the world. And you ask why just the United States Why aren't other nations also having deficit problems affecting their currency and their credit standings?

The answer is: Some nations do have balance of payments troubles, and have them bad; Other nations (like Britain) have them off and on; and most of the rest suffered after World War II even worse than the United States is today but have pulled from deficit to surplus as the United States slipped.

Underdeveloped countries usually are dependent on loans and grants from others to balance their payments with the rest of the world. This is especially true of those with big ambitions — the ones who want to grow industrially at jet speed. Aiding them has helped push the United States further into the red.

Industrial countries like Britain have periodic payment problems when their exports slump or their consumer taste for imports gets too rich.

France, West Germany and other European countries went through rough years after the war. West Germany built up to her present affluence by austerity. France belatedly cured its inflationary spree that caused the franc to be devalued more than once when the rest of the world lost confidence in it. Now a new inflation is starting and France is taking sharp corrective measures.

Canada has a commercial trade deficit of $1.4 billion with the United States, largely offset by $1.2 billion a year in investments by Americans. It now is proposing to curb U.S. imports while protesting U.S. efforts to stem the investment outflow.

The unique thing about the U.S. deficit of payments today is that it isn't in any of the classic forms.

Usually deficits arise from imports topping exports (as in post-war Europe while it was importing all it could to build up its industrial facilities for domestic use and finally for the exports that make it prosperous).

But in the United States exports go right along topping imports.

Today the Yankee dollar, for all its problems, isn't shunned. It doesn't buy as much in goods and services as it once did. But most foreigners are willing to hold onto most of the dollars they get up to a point. And it's that point American and other financial authorities worry about.

If the U.S. balance of payments stays out of kilter too long and others get the idea the dollar might become shaky, most countries would switch from dollar reserves to demanding gold.

Tomorrow: Defenses of our gold we could take in a crisis.

Installment Plan Rejected

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley rejected Monday a request by the Farmers Tractor and Equipment Co. of Pine Bluff for a refund of $14,489 in taxes so it could pay the amount in 10 equal annual installments.

The company paid the taxes on money credited to its dealer's reserve account in 1957 and 1958 by the John Deere Plow Co. of St. Louis. The firm said it should be allowed to pay the amount in installments under the Dealers' Reserve Income Adjustment Act of 1960.

"It does not follow from the fact that Congress was willing to permit a taxpayer-debtor to discharge his unpaid obligation in installments that Congress was willing to make a refund of money to some other taxpayer who had discharged his obligation merely for the purpose of letting that taxpayer repay the money in installments," Henley said.

Strike May Delay Wheat Shipments

MONTREAL (AP)—Shippers expressed concern today that shipment of 60 million bushels of Canadian wheat to the Soviet Union may be delayed by a strike threat of stevedores in St. Lawrence River ports.

The longshoremen voted Sunday to stop work Friday if there is no agreement in their wage dispute with shipowners.

The wheat is part of the Soviet Union's $500 million wheat deal with Canada.

Members of the International Longshoremen's Association rejected the shippers' offer of a 22-cent-an-hour wage increase over two years. Their present scale is $3.33 an hour plus 25 cents in fringe benefits.

MINE IN NORTH VIET NAM: Efforts to industrialize Communist Viet Nam have been slow and unrewarding. Here, workers bulldoze carts onto tracks in an open pit coal mine near the far northern coastal town of Hon Gai.

MOUNTAIN RETREAT—Col. R. T. Greigg, North American Air Defense Command's director of civil engineering, points out features of models of buildings for NORAD's new underground combat operations center. The center, expected to go into operation in 1965, will consist of 11 buildings constructed within a series of granite chambers hollowed out of Cheyenne Mountain near Colorado Springs, Colo. The buildings will be free-standing, without contact with the mountains, and will be joined by flexible connections.

The NIGHT, The WOMAN

THE STORY: Still denying that he murdered Valerie Hayward, Todd Cardon tells of visiting her yacht, finding her lying on the deck, but not dead.

XVI

Blake wasn't buying that, but he asked, "Didn't you look around for somebody still on board, or getting away in another boat?"

"Finding her like that was a horrible jolt. I couldn't think. I didn't know whether she was dead or alive. I stooped over her and shook her, and it was like... like poking at a sleeping bear. Suddenly she was up and fighting me."

"Fighting you?"

"I can't explain it, except that it must have been a sort of dying spasm. She was out of her head. She must have thought I was the one who'd done that to her. Somehow she got herself up on her feet, but as soon as she did, she began toppling over. I grabbed her, held her. That was when the blood got on my shirt—transferred. She went on fighting me. I had to let go of her and we both went down."

This was the struggle Blake had witnessed—but Todd's version of it failed to explain the stab wounds.

"We both went down and that was the finish," Todd was looking at Blake as if judging how well, or how badly, his story was getting across. "I tried to find her pulse and couldn't. Then I panicked. I got away as fast as I could."

No. An empty interval had followed the struggle, a period of 15 minutes or so during which Todd had not been in sight. Blake did not mention it. Instead, he reminded Todd, "You've overlooked a detail. The money." And again Todd's answer caught him unprepared.

"I know. I'd forgotten about it. I was out on the bay, partway home, when it struck me. I'd left the money there on the bar. There was no help for it, I had to turn back."

Blake had been vacillating between belief and doubt. Some parts of Todd's story could be valid, but other parts seemed fabricated. Blake had been asking himself how he could credit any of it in the face of Todd's previous lies and evasions.

But Todd stayed with it. "Something else had happened on that boat while I was out on the water. Somebody had been aboard again. The cabin was torn apart. Things were missing, stolen. It must have been the same person who'd killed Val."

"And the money?" he asked.

"Gone," Todd added in haste. "But don't worry about that, kid. I'll pay you back."

Suddenly Blake felt exhausted. He couldn't cope with any more

Farm Prices in Slight Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Farm product prices have declined 4 per cent during the last 12 months and wound up in mid-September at only 77 per cent of the parity price goal of federal farm programs, compared with 81 per cent a year earlier.

An Agriculture Department price report Monday said that prices paid by farmers did not change during the last month, but were one per cent higher than a year ago.

Farm products running below year earlier levels included, cotton and chickens. Products which were higher included rice and soybeans.

came around they would certainly doubt it. Evidently Todd wanted no advice from his kid brother. By the time Blake reached the driveway, he was already pulling out, and he toiled off without a backward glance.

As Blake turned back, his father came through the garage. The judge had found an opening for a private talk with him. It would be another small ordeal, but unavoidable.

"Have you made any headway, Blake?"

"I had a good talk with Todd," "Another woman?"

The judge had had this question in the back of his mind all along! "No," Blake said quickly. "No, not that. Todd's nerves have been on edge because a big deal is pending."

"Strictly legitimate business then?"

"Strictly that."

Happenings of Today in Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

CORREGIDOR MEMORIAL: The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill authorizing expenditure of $1.5 million as the U.S. share in making the Philippine island of Corregidor a World War II memorial.

House approval Tuesday was by voice vote.

Under the bill, the Philippines would put up a similar amount and would maintain the memorial.

DOMINICAN DEBATE: Three Democratic senators have demanded that the State Department permanently withhold recognition from the military junta that last week overthrew President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic.

The three, Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, Wayne Morse of Oregon and Ernest Gruening of Alaska, also urged withholding of military aid to the new regime.

The Senate Foreign Relations committee plans to question John Bartlow Martin, U.S. ambassador to the Dominican Republic at the time of the coup, and Edwin M. Martin, assistant secretary of state for Latin America, at its first closed session Thursday.

TROOPS TO STAY: An authoritative source says the Kennedy administration has decided to leave the 3,500-man 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment in Germany.

Plans to return the regiment were revealed several weeks ago as part of a plan to cut back U.S. troops levels in Germany to the number on duty before the 1961 Berlin crisis. Some 22,000 of the 40,000 extra troops sent to Europe at that time have been withdrawn.

No reason was given for the reversal.

FREAR RESIGNS: Former Democratic Sen. J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware has resigned from the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although Frear, 60, has been ill a year, it was not known if this was the reason for his resignation.

Makes First Flight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CHRISTCHURCH, New Zealand (AP)—A U.S. Navy transport plane landed at McMurdo Sound in the Antarctic today after making the first flight from Cape Town, South Africa, over the South Pole.

On board was the commander of the Navy's antarctic support force, Rear Adm. James R. Reedy.

The Navy reported the aircraft encountered no difficulties. It said intense cold precluded a landing at the isolated American base at the South Pole.

Appeals Decision on Injuries

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Parrish Easo Service Center appealed to the state Supreme Court Tuesday for a decision on whether the injuries received by a West Memphis station manager were compensable or an "Act of God."

A Workmen's Compensation Commission referee ruled that injuries to Thurman L. Adams in a windstorm May 6, 1960, were an "Act of God" and his employer was not liable. On appeal, the full commission ruled otherwise.

Adams said he was anchoring a sign when the storm struck. He said he was blown off his feet, hurled 75 feet, suffered a broken hip and other injuries and could not resume full employment until March of 1961.

300 to Attend Real Estate Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Three hundred persons are expected to attend the three-day Arkansas Real Estate Association convention which begins Wednesday.

Speakers include Jack Justice, president of the National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers and Daniel F. Sheehan Sr., president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

at the isolated American base at the South Pole.

Wants Cutback of Soviet Aid

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HAVANA (AP)—Cubans appreciate Russian aid but they must not rely on it too heavily, says Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

He called on his countrymen to work harder so Cuba can cut back on Soviet aid and ease a $100 million balance of payments deficit to the Russians.

Castro made the plea in a rambling outdoor address Saturday night in which he again unleashed a broad attack on the United States.

A mysterious explosion interrupted Castro at one point, but the Cuban leader remained unruffled. "Don't worry," he told the throng. "It doesn't matter if it is a bomb."

Stay Granted for a Mental Test

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Pulaski Circuit Judge William J. Kirby granted Tuesday a 30-day extension of time to finish a mental examination of James Dean Walker, 22, of Reno, Nev.

Walker is charged with murder in the fatal shooting of North Little Rock Patrolman Jerrell P. Vaughan on April 15. Kirby committed Walker to the State Hospital on Sept. 5 for the customary 30-day examination permitted by law. No trial date has been set.

Bacon Biscuits — A Treat at Every Meal

Who says that bacon only belongs on the breakfast table? October is biscuit and muffin month . . . and there's no better time to expand on this tradition by making bacon a welcome breakfast or suppertime guest with "Bacon Biscuits."

Crisp, tasty bacon pieces transform this tender, flaky biscuit into a new taste sensation that is welcome at any meal. A perfect complement for casseroles and stews, these golden Bacon Biscuits are also ideal to serve with your favorite soup.

The recipe for Bacon Biscuits was developed by Rita Martin, director of International Milling Co.'s Robin Hood Flour test kitchens. The biscuits are made the easy Robin Hood "No-sift" way which completely eliminates bothersome sifting.

BACON BISCUITS (A Robin Hood Pre-sifted Flour recipe)

4 slices bacon 1 tsp. salt
1 1/4 cups plus 2 tbsp. Robin Hood 3/4 cup milk
All Purpose Flour 1/2 cup shortening
3 tsp. baking powder
CUT — bacon into small pieces and fry until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper.
SPOON — flour (not sifted) into dry measuring cup. Level off and pour measured flour into bowl.
ADD — baking powder and salt to flour (not sifted) and stir to blend.
CUT IN — shortening with pastry blender until mixture resembles coarse meal. Stir in cooked bacon.
ADD — milk, stirring with a fork until all flour is moistened.
TURN OUT — onto lightly floured cloth-covered board, and knead gently 20 times.
ROLL — to 1/2 inch thickness. Cut with lightly floured 2-inch biscuit cutter, making one sharp cut for each.
PLACE — on ungreased baking sheet.
BAKE — at 450° for 8-10 minutes.
YIELD — 1 dozen biscuits.
* If you use Robin Hood Pre-sifted Self-Rising Flour (sold in some sections of the country) omit baking powder and salt.

Observance of a Great Success Story

By J. W. DAVIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A great American success story is being celebrated here this week.

It's the 75th anniversary of the National Geographic, a magazine that many Americans have grown up with in their homes. Many others have whiled away apprehensive time reading it in doctors' offices.

The miracle of this success is that a slim, scholarly publication that started weakly in October 1888 has grown today to be a giant in circulation (3,535,000), fat with advertising, and with never a compromise on principles or goals. The magazine goes to members of the National Geographic Society and is not sold on newsstands.

It's dismaying to think how many magazines once sturdy and flourishing, have folded their pages and silently stolen away.

The man credited with being the builder of the National Geographic Society and its magazine is Gilbert Hovey Grosvenor who, from 1899 to 1954, edited 660 issues of the magazine with more than 3,300 articles.

In a reminiscent narrative that features the diamond anniversary issue this month—the largest in the magazine's history—Dr. Grosvenor, now chairman of the society's Board of Trustees, tells of the early struggles and the advances through the years.

For example, even in the first, short — money days, Grosvenor laid down a policy that still holds — there would be no advertising of liquor, beer, wine, tobacco or patent medicines.

He recalls: "I thought of geography in terms of the Greek root: geographia—a description of the world. It thus becomes the most catholic of subjects, universal in appeal and embracing nations, people, plants, animals, birds, fish."

Here may lie the key to the geographic success:

"Long ago I evolved an editorial policy—
"One principle was absolute accuracy. Others required that each article be of permanent value and avoid partisanship and controversy."

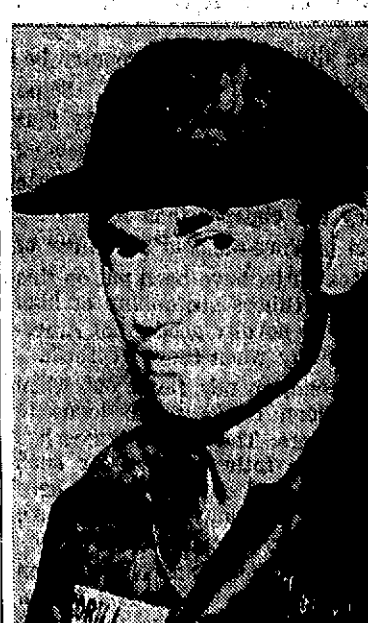

"I also decided that no derogatory material would be printed about any country or people. The Geographic has always dealt in facts, not bias, rumor, or prejudice."

The Geographic's leadership in photography, especially color photography, has been generally conceded.

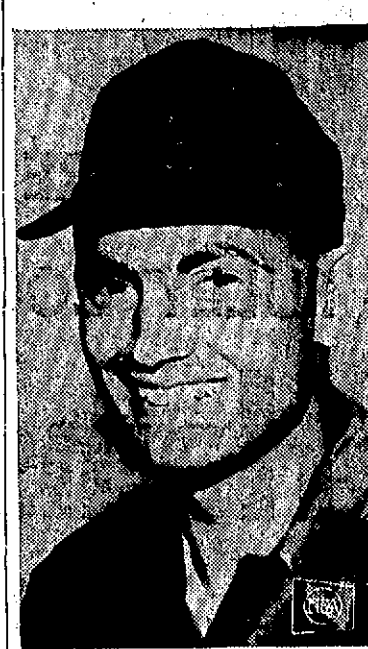

President Franklin D. Roosevelt followed the course of World War II on National Geographic maps, mounted on rollers in a cabinet behind his White House desk.

Also, the society came to the aid of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who was having trouble during the war in getting through the British reserve of Gen. Sir Alan F. Brooke, chief of the imperial general staff. Ike broke the ice by presenting to Sir Alan, an avid bird watcher and photographer, a copy of the Society's book of birds.

The first recorded coal production in Arkansas, in 1848, was mined at the Spadra Mines. 220 tons were mined at this time.

Acknowledges Birth in Arkansas

NEW YORK (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur questioned his birthplace Monday during a ceremony in which he was awarded the distinguished achievement medal of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York State.

MacArthur interrupted a review of his life by former appeals Judge Charles Frossell as Frossell mentioned that MacArthur had been born in Little Rock, Ark.

"You spoke of my birthplace," said MacArthur, "I am a Virginian."

The general then good naturedly explained that it had been intended that he was to be born in Norfolk, Va., his mother's home. But his father, a soldier, was suddenly ordered to Little Rock where he was born.

"But the Norfolk papers were loyal," he continued. "In the paper's headlines it said Douglas MacArthur was born while his parents were away."

MacArthur received the Masonic citation for "unparalleled devotion in service of God and our country. MacArthur, a 33rd degree Mason, was inducted into the order at Manila in 1936.

Everything Fine But the Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today "everyone is willing for Arkansas to have an exhibit at the New York World's Fair until you ask them to contribute some money to it."

Faubus' remark followed an offer made Saturday by Winthrop Rockefeller to put up $1 for every $2 Arkansians put up for the exhibit.

Rockefeller charged that Faubus had shown little interest in having the state's opportunities displayed at the fair.

Faubus said today it is the financing of the exhibit that is causing hesitation about approving the $500,000 that it will cost.

Escapes Waive Extradition

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two men who escaped jail at Wichita, Kan. last week and were recaptured near Little Rock late Saturday and early Sunday were returned to Wichita today to face trial.

Oscar Floyd Wharton, 36, of Little Rock, and John Oscar Engberg, 29, of Denver, Colo., waived extradition Monday.

Mrs. Ruby Jean Sludder, 22, of near Little Rock, was with the two men when they were captured. She remained in Pulaski County Jail pending completion of an investigation.

Mrs. Sludder and both men said she had nothing to do with the jail break.

Maneuver Losses Investigated

HONOLULU (AP)—An investigation into the loss of four landing craft and injuries to nine Marines during Navy and Marine amphibious assault maneuvers has been ordered by Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp Jr., Pacific Fleet commander.

The craft overturned in surf Monday on Molokai Island at the start of a four-day operation with 7,000 Marines and 6,000 Navy men.

Sharp estimated Tuesday that damage to boats and equipment total $224,000. The injuries to the Marines were minor.

West German Flour to Russia

BONN, Germany (AP) — West German firms will export about $10 million worth of wheat flour to the Soviet Union, well-informed sources said today, despite Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's open disapproval of helping Moscow.

The quantity is relatively small, 250,000 tons, compared with the 6.8 million tons the Soviets have bought from Canada and the 1.8 million tons from Australia. The price is reported to be about $21 a ton, with delivery by March.

The highest point in the Arkansas Ozarks is in Newton County, near Jasper.

Bosch Arrives at French Isle

POINTE A PITRE, Guedeloupe (AP) — Deposed President Juan Bosch of the Dominican Republic arrived Monday night at the French island in the Caribbean. Bosch was ousted Wednesday in a military takeover of his government. He was sent abroad on the Dominican navy frigate Mella Saturday night.

Winners in Damage Suit Appeal Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The winners of a $3,200 judgement in a Washington County automobile accident case appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court today.

Major Mabry and his son Wayne of Lovell got the judgement against Dwight Nickell of Fayetteville for injuries to the younger Mabry in a Jan. 16, 1962, accident near Lowell.

The Mabrys also had sued G. W. Ross Jr. of near Russellville and the Standard Rendering Co., but the trial judge ordered a verdict

Threat in Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP) —Brazil's war air and navy ministers threatened Monday night to take "preventive action" against a governor who predicted President Joao Goulart's economically and politically troubled government may fall before the end of the year.

Gov. Carlos Lacerda of Guanabara, bitter political foe of Goulart, made the prediction in an interview with Julian Hartt, correspondent of the Los Angeles Times. His story was published here Monday.

The three ministers issued a communique accusing the governor as people without backbone, incapable of guiding itself without foreign tutors and delivered to a band of communist spotters.

Bomb Score

PARIS (AP)—Police said someone called Mrs. Ngo Dinh Nhu's hotel Monday night and said a time bomb was about to explode. Police checked but found nothing suspicious. Mrs. Nhu, outspoken first lady of South Viet Nam, arrived Sunday.

in favor of these two defendants.

The Mabrys contended that Ross, driving a Standard Rendering Co. truck, negligently signalled Nickell that he could pass the truck and the Nickell and Mabry cars collided during the passing.

TV Hearings About Mobs Spectacular

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — CBS' full, live coverage of the Senate investigations subcommittee hearings provide without doubt the most gripping television on the networks for a long time. The other network summaries of highlights do not begin to capture the impact of the shocking story.

Joseph Valachi, ex-burglar, ex-narcotics dealer, confessed accomplice in cold-blooded murder and defector from a secret Sicilian organization, appears to have an almost embarrassed reluctance to use that new tag, "Cosa Nostra," for what used to be called the Mafia or the Black Hand Society.

He has, however, an elephant's memory for names, dates and conversations and by the end of Tuesday's testimony had reached only the early 1930s. It was a level-headed account of life inside a nationwide crime syndicate run by feudal overlords.

It is hard to follow his testimony. Valachi's diction is muddy. His sentences are a mixture of gang slang and formal legal phrases. He often mispronounces words. Most difficult of all is his cast of characters. Most of them have two names, used interchangeably. It is hard to remember the other name of Nick the Thief, or of Dutch Augie and I never did find out the real name of Chick Ninety Nine.

Valachi, who looks like an elderly and respectable businessman, told his incredible tale in a matter-of-fact voice. Even the senators who had heard the story before looked flabbergasted. One interrupted a complicated story about a killing contract to ask Valachi if all this seemed to him "as natural as breathing." The witness calmly agreed it did.

Valachi's description of the initiation ceremonies of the organization sounded like kid stuff. It involved promising to "live by the gun and the knife and to die by the gun and the knife," taking, quite literally, a blood oath of secrecy and fealty. But the witness, who seemed to be enjoying the sensation he was creating, pointed out "This is my doom—this is the promise I'm breaking."

It was certainly exciting and frightening to watch but one wonders what good this public testimony will do. Valachi has been talking to the authorities for over a year. Not much seems to have happened.

CBS' new "Chronicle" series, which occasionally will take over the "CBS Reports" Wednesday night spot (7:30-8:30 EDT) bows in tonight. Initial program is called "The French, They Are So French," and will take a look at the race-through French eyes.

NBC's "Espionage" series, based on real-life stories and filmed in Europe, also makes its debut tonight (9-10) with a World War II story about the Norwegian underground.

Tax Hearing to Start Next Week

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Harry F. Byrd of the Senate Finance Committee says he may open public hearings next week on President Kennedy's tax cut bill.

Indications are, however, that lengthy committee deliberations and a decision to seek Senate action first on controversial civil rights legislation will delay final congressional action until early next year.

Senate Democratic leaders made plain Tuesday they planned to bring the civil rights bill up for a Senate vote before the tax cut measure which was passed last week in the House.

The civil rights bill is expected to touch off a battle that almost certainly will include a lengthy Southern filibuster against the bill. Thus even if the Senate Finance Committee moves quickly on the tax bill, the Senate would be unable to consider it until it disposes of civil rights.

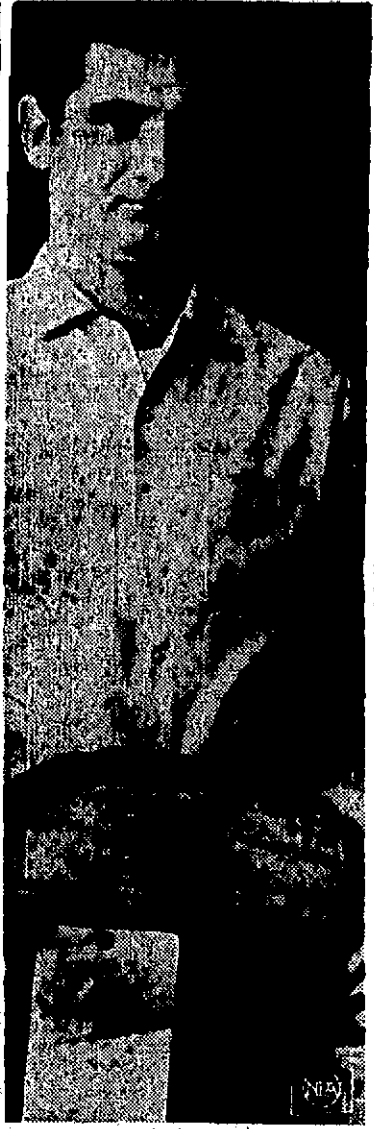

Byrd, a Virginia Democrat, said Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon would be leadoff witness at the tax bill hearings. His announcement came Tuesday after his committee voted 11 to 4 against a move by Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., to speed up hearings.

"It's a very unfortunate decision," Douglas said. "In effect, we will have no tax bill this year."

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader and a Finance Committee member, said the committee's vote meant the bill would not be ready for floor action until Christmas.

One factor in drawing out the committee's work, Dirksen noted, is that 75 amendments—most of them rejected in the House—are expected to be offered to the tax measure.

The decision to put civil rights ahead of a tax cut was revealed by Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the assistant Senate

Observers Impressed by Pope John

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Staff Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP) — Many non-Catholic observers at the Vatican Ecumenical Council are deeply impressed by the efforts of Pope Paul VI to continue the drive toward Christian unity started by Pope John XXIII.

Sixty-three delegates from 21 non-Catholic church bodies have privileged seats inside St. Peter's Basilica when the 2,500 council fathers meet.

The new Pontiff obviously made a mark when he said at the resumption of the council Sunday: "If we are in any way to blame for separation, we humbly ask God's forgiveness and ask pardon, too, of our brethren who feel themselves to have been injured by us."

Said the Rev. Dr. Harold De Soysa, Anglican archdeacon of Colombo, Ceylon: "That was far more than any Pope has said before."

The Rev. Albert C. Outler, American delegate to the World Methodist Council, commented: "I think it was a splendid statement of the spirit of Pope John and a new level of precision and direction has been given to the program of work for the pontificate of Pope Paul."

Canon Peter John Mann of the Old Catholic Church (Union of Utrecht) termed the Pope's speech "very encouraging."

The observers' Tuesday night had their first meeting in two months with members of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity. They were invited to make observations on the schema or topic redefining in detail the nature of the Catholic church. The council overwhelmingly approved the schema as a basis for debate on its individual clauses.

A Yugoslav bishop suggested today that a special commission be created within the Vatican Curia to study modern atheism.

Bishop Franjo Franic of Split told the daily working session in St. Peter's Basilica that the commission would be a clearing house to help Roman Catholic bishops throughout the world combat atheism.

The Yugoslav was one of 15 prelates — cardinals, archbishops who spoke on the first chapter of a four-chapter document concerning the church, "De Ecclesia."

The document redefines the nature of the Roman Catholic Church and the image it has of itself.

A council spokesman gave newsmen the gist of the remarks of Bishop Franic and other speakers.

Workers Vote Against Union
FORREST CITY, Ark. (AP) — Employees at Airtherm Products Inc. and General Industries Inc., plants voted last week against union representation, plant officials said Tuesday.

Airtherm workers voted 39-20 against affiliation with the United Steelworkers. General Industries voted 247-94 against affiliation with the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

U.S. Sending More Money, Getting Less

Editor's note—The many holes in the United States' pockets through which dollars slip abroad are listed in this second of five articles by Sam Dawson, Associated Press business news analyst.

Housing Spending
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Marshall W. Amis, regional director of the Public Housing Administration at Fort Worth, says $8,363,247 was spent by 56 local housing authorities in Arkansas during the fiscal year ended June 30 for low-rent housing projects.

on the balance of payments problem.

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Uncle Sam is financially embarrassed in his dealings with the rest of the world because for several years he's been sending more dollars abroad than he has been getting back. And yet his exports of goods and services exceed his imports by around $4 billion a year.

Some of the cause of the deficit lies in government policies. But not all of it. How then do all these billions of dollars flow out of the country?

First there are commercial imports, now costing around $16.8 billion a year, four per cent higher than a year ago.

Their total cost in dollars may rise still more as the country becomes more prosperous. Some imports are raw materials that U.S. industries will be chewing up. Some goods come in because they are cheaper than Americans can produce—and in a number of cases curbs have been put on this inflow. Others are quality or high style or novelty goods that Americans buy when they are flush.

Second, money flows out when American banks make loans to foreigners. The United States has been the fattest source for such capital. And interest rates here usually are lower than those charged by foreign banks.

Third, Americans have been buying foreign stocks and bonds. The government says that sales here of new long-term foreign securities are now running at an annual rate of $1.7 billion.

Also, corporations or well-heeled individuals with idle cash have been sending dollars to Europe for short-term securities paying higher interest than obtainable here. This outflow is called hot money.

And whenever there's much talk about the dollar being under pressure because of the balance of payments deficit, some speculators send their dollars abroad to buy gold or securities or for deposit in banks.

Fourth, American corporations have been spending dollars abroad to build factories and distribution centers. Motivations are cheaper production costs, or crawling under tariff walls other nations build against American-made goods, or getting close to fast growing consumer markets abroad.

But these invested billions abroad aren't all on the deficit side of the balance of payments. A lot of dollars flow back as earnings from these plants.

A fifth source of the outflow of dollars lies in the large amounts of American securities, real estate, factories and resources owned by foreigners. Interest, dividends and profits on these holdings speed dollars overseas.

A sixth source of U.S. dollars for foreigners is the American tourist. In 1962, the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis points out, Americans spent $1.9 billion in foreign countries, plus $562 million on foreign carries. The total this year is expected to be higher.

This $2.5 billion outflow last year was only partly offset by the $1 billion foreign visitors spent here, including what they paid U.S. carriers for transportation. Finally, the U.S. government spends billions of dollars on military programs abroad and other billions on grants and loans to other countries.

A sizable part of this is reclaimed. President Kennedy says up to 80 per cent of foreign aid is actually spent here, boosting our exports by that much.

Tomorrow: Are other nations free of this problem?

WHY IS A FULL SHANK HALF HAM A BETTER BUY?

Most food stores divide a ham into three portions—a shank portion, butt portion, and the center section which is generally cut into slices and sold at a much higher price than the two end portions. Kroger, however, cuts a ham in half, leaving a generous share of the choice center section on the shank half—this is placed on sale at a low, low "Portion Price." You truly get more meat for your money with a full shank half ham from Kroger.
